Linked ski trail plan gets provincial backing

Nordic Trail group gets grant for ambitious scheme designed to boost winter tourism

By LEN PIZZEY
Echo Editor

The dream of turning Haliburton County into "the cross country ski capital of Canada" moved a big step closer to reality last week when the Ontario government approved a $150,000 Lottario grant for local trail development. The Haliburton Highlands Nordic Trail Association sought the funding as part of a proposed $263,000 project to link existing trails systems within the county.

Curtis Eastmure, spokesman for the Nordic Trail Association, said the province's decision to provide the full amount requested is "unprecedented", and was based on "the merits of the project" which is expected to give a major boost to winter tourism in the area. Eastmure said Tourism and Recreation minister Reuben Baetz is "very supportive" of the Association's proposal.

Under the scheme, a system of trails will be cut to connect existing trail systems in the Lake Kashagawigamog area, Camp Wanakita on Koshlong Lake, Snowdon Township, Lochlin, Stanhope and Minden. The proposal also calls for the creation of a 25 kilometre com-

Some $60,000 has been earmarked for the program management expenses and trail designing fees. A further $110,000 will be spent for machine work and trail grooming equipment. Labour costs are expected to be $40,000, with an additional $15,000 budgeted for signage, $5000 for office rental expenses, $25,000 for promotion and communications, $3000 for vehicle leasing and $5000 for miscellaneous expenses.

Much of the cost beyond the $150,000 Lottario grant is expected to come in the form of donated machinery work from the municipalities involved, and job creation petitive track which would meet the requirements of World Cup nordic ski event organizers.

Negotiations with provincial officials began earlier this year, when a formal brief outlining the association's plans was presented at Queen's Park. Final approval for the Lottario grant came from the cabinet last Friday.

"I'm really excited about it," Eastmure said in an interview Monday. "We have an awful lot of work ahead of us."

The association, which is made up of local business and tourist operators, has formed a standing committee to review applications for the position of project consultant/coordinator. Among those who are expected to seek the job is Mike Exall, a member of the Ontario Ski Council and an expert on trail development.

projects funded by upper levels of government through local councils.

Eastmure said the association hopes to secure corporate sponsorship for the $15,000 worth of signage that will designate trails within the system.

Three potential locations for the 25 kilometre competitive track have been identified using topographical maps. Each would begin in the Haliburton area, but a final decision on where the track will be built is not expected to be made until the consultant has had a chance to view the sites and arrangements with landowners are worked out.

Work is expected to get underway in late July, and the total project will take about a year to complete, Eastmure said. About three quarters of the estimated 75 kilometres of linking trails should be cut and

Communities plan celebrations for Canada Day

Old fashioned entertainment and family activities for the entire family will be the focus of three Canada Day celebrations planned for the Haliburton area. Organizers in Minden, West Guilford and Kinmount have all chosen to emphasize the heritage of their communities this July 1 and have made Canada's past their theme.

In West Guilford, activities are scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. with a horseshoe tournament and a flea market. At noon, the celebrations will officially begin and a special Canada Day poem will be read. Throughout the day, a number of contests and races have also been planned. The long distance Pine

Lake Swim is set to begin at noon, with shorter swimming races to be held an hour later. In addition, prizes will be awarded to the oldest man and woman, the youngest boy and girl and the parent with the most descendants. A nail driving and crosscut saw contest will be held for men and women and a men's chainsaw and ladies' rolling pin contest will also take place. For the children, wagon rides, foot races and a decorated bicycle contest are planned as well as a bubble gum contest. For those who wish to put their baking to the test, a pie baking contest will be held at 5 p.m. In keeping with the old time theme, a heritage contest will also be held at this time. Following the afternoon's events, a ball game for parents and their children will begin at 6:30 and an

Board wants new policy

The Haliburton County Board of Education has instructed its Transportation committee to come up with a revised set of rules governing bus drivers, bus operators and students.

The decision came in response to a brief on school bus safety drafted by the Archie Stouffer Home and School Association and presented at a recent meeting of the transportation committee. A number of concerns about driver training, mechanical fitness of buses and student behavior were addressed in the brief, and these are expected to be considered by the transportation committee when it drafts a new policy.

The new policy is expected to be in place by the beginning of September.

Norah Good wins gold, sets 3000 metre record

A former Haliburton resident set a new world record last week at the International Games for the Disabled in Uniondale, New York. Norah Good, age 26, who now lives in Ottawa, slashed almost 15 seconds off the record in the 3000 metre distance for blind athletes with between five percent and 10 percent vision. Her time of 11 minutes 39 and three tenths seconds earned her the Gold medal in the event, one of 22 contested at the two week long games. She also broke the class record in the 1500 metre distance, finishing second in a time of 5:17.

Her performance was one of the most outstanding among a Canadian contingent of 85 men and women who joined 1700 athletes from 54 countries at the Games.

For Norah, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Good of Haliburton, a berth at the games was the culmination of years of running and many months of intensive training with the East Ottawa Lions track club, a group that includes fully sighted athletes.

She doesn't think her limited vision is a handicap on the track, even when she competes with sighted runners.

"I don't think I'm any different than they are," she said in a telephone interview from Ottawa. "Disability has nothing to do with it." Mentally and physically, a blind athlete has to be just as well prepared as any other competitor if he or she hopes to do well, Good says.

Although she is pleased with her record setting performance at Uniondale, Good feels she can improve her times over the 1500 and 3000 metre distances through persistent training. And she looks forward to the time, which she feels is only a few years away, when partially sighted athletes will be able to compete on even terms with sighted competitors.

She says it was "exciting to meet all kinds of other people" at the Games, which were opened by U.S. president Ronald Reagan. And she emphasized that she is "really thankful for the support" she has received from service clubs in Haliburton, who helped defray her costs for last week's competition.

General Occurrences

During the period of June 18 to 24, personnel at Minden Detachment investigated the following occurrences: 14 motor vehicle accidents in which six persons were injured; and 60 general occurrences, including 11 thefts and eight break and enters.

Accidents

On Wednesday, June 20, at 12:05 a.m., on Highway 121, 5 km. east of the north junction of Highway 35, in Minden Township, Christos Magafas, age 19, of Bancroft, missed a curve, overcorrected, crossed the highway, entered the left ditch and rolled over. Damage to the 1977 Olds was estimated at $4,400. The driver and 17 year old passenger received minor injuries. Magafas was charged with careless driving.

On Wednesday, June 20, at 2:50 a.m., on the Green Lake Road in Stanhope Township, Cesare Gaspari, 27, of Stanhope Township, was operating his '74 Chev. when it ran out of gas. As it was coasting to a stop, a passenger in the rear seat, Erin McGuire, 19, of the same address, stepped out of the car and in so doing had his foot run over by the rear wheel. He was taken to Haliburton Hospital for treatment.

On Saturday, June 23, at 4:30 p.m., on the Old Airport Road in Minden Township, Debra McCracken, age 23, of Ingoldsby, lost control of her '68 car on a curve and it struck a rock, causing the car to roll onto its roof. There was no injury to the three occupants. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

On Saturday, June 23, at 3:00 p.m., on County Road 3 (Buckhorn Rd.) in Glamorgan Township, Trevor Chiasson, 23, of Peterborough, swerved to avoid oncoming traffic. His '80 Chev. travelled from the right shoulder, across the highway and into the left ditch where it struck a tree. The car received $4,500 damage. Both occupants were taken to Haliburton Hospital for treatment.

On Saturday, June 23, at 7:15 p.m., on Hwy. 121, west of Haliburton, Wade Barry, age 18, of RR 1, Minden, drove onto the right shoulder to avoid an oncoming car at the crest of a hill. His '80 Dodge drove over the shoulder into the ditch, striking a rock. The car was damaged an estimated $4,000.

Stolen Car Recovered

A 1978 Chev. Camaro stolen from Haliburton Village on June 11 was located abandoned near Green Lake in Guilford Township by PC Wim Magee while on patrol. The car appears to be undamaged and is being held for fingerprinting by O.P.P. Identification staff.

Dysart Council

Dysart et al council met June 11 and considered the following matters:

General Accounts totalling $79,075.70, Road Accounts totalling $88,276.85, and Social Services totalling $15,819.72, were approved for payment.

A Municipal Non Profit Housing Survey will be undertaken at the earliest possible date.

A request for a right-of-way over Municipal lands from Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of the West Guilford Graft in order to gain access to a proposed dock on Pine Lake or the River has been reviewed and investigated and approval is denied due to concerns with boat traffic and the limited space at this location.

Peter Lymburner was advised that the Lymrock Apartments Parking Area is to be graded, paved and proper draining installed as soon as possible, but not later than July 31, 1984.

Hasley Developments Limited will be advised that council do not feel a water

Soyers Lake group backs acid rain fight

By BRUCE BIRRELL

The spring meeting of the Soyers Lake Ratepayers' Association was held at the PineStone Inn on May 20, 1984, and was attended by 31 members. The president, Lew McCriston, chaired the meeting.

Business discussed included an update on the status of the Official Plan and Zoning By-law, costs associated with lakeshore road allowance closures, the Provincial Government's recently completed Lakeshore Capacity Study and the difficulty of gaining access to information from the study, the question of which government authority is responsible for maintaining the boat channel under Highway 121 near Wentworth Marina, the value to the Association of continued membership in the Federation of Ontario

Cottagers' Associations, and the sale of a lot on Soyers Lake zoned "open space".

Plans were made for Association activities during the summer, including sailboat events, the Fish Derby, and the annual Corn Roast and Regatta to be held on August 25. Reports received from the chairmen of the various committees, and special thanks were extended to Ben Cameron, treasurer, and Gordon Ogg, corn roast committee chairman, for their service over a number of years. The Association also recognized the efforts of Ross Partridge, chairman of the pollution committee, for his efforts not only in carrying out tests and obtaining secchi disc results, but also in maintaining the authorities' interest in the water quality of Soyers Lake. Partridge pointed out that while the test results have been generally satisfactory, the lake water is no longer tested for bacteria and the use of suitable filters for bacteria removal from drinking water is strongly advised.

The highlight of the meeting was a showing of the film on acid rain entitled "Requiem or Recovery", which stirred up so much controversy in the United States. The film, produced for the Canadian Coalition on Acid Rain, vividly portrays the destruction of forests as well as fish, wildlife and plants as a result of acid emissions. As a mark of its support, the Association voted a donation to the Coalition in its fight against this major environmental threat. Appreciation was expressed to Lew McCriston who made special efforts to obtain the film.

Art Ward gets Tourism Medallion

Thirty Canadians from all regions of Canada have been awarded Canadian Tourism Medallions and Certificates of Recognition honouring their contribution to the industry.

Among the provincial/territorial recipients was Art Ward of Wig-A-Mog Inn.

Minden council

A regular meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden council was held Thursday, June 14. Members of council and staff attended in period costume in recognition of the village's 125th anniversary.

Objections were received from the following persons regarding Mr. Strupp's application to purchase that portion of the original shoreline allowance fronting Paul Lake in Lot 10, Conc. 4, in Hindon Township: P. Moeking, R. Rick, R. Parsons, W. Blight, and A.M. Austen. Fraser Rogers was present on behalf of Strupp. Council agreed to pass the By-law but to delete that portion in Lot 10, i.e. Pt. 19 on Plan 19R-3045.

Syd Adamson of Jay Lake Tent and Trailer Park was present to request permission to place a second mobile home on his commercial property for use as a temporary residence. Council recommended that an application be made to the Committee of Adjustment for a minor variance as the proposal does not comply with By-law 14-67.

Council approved Henry Doiron's application to place a single-wide mobile home on his property in part of lot 18, Concession 3 in the Township of Minden subject to the following conditions: (a) A permanent foundation be installed under the mobile no later than May 31, 1985; (b) All municipal by-laws are complied with with respect to setbacks; (c) Approval be received from the Haliburton Health Unit; (d) Approval be received from MTC; (e) A building permit must be obtained before any work is commenced.

Council approved Fred King's application to install a single-wide trailer 60' x 12' on property in part of lot 6, Concession 3 in the Township of Minden subject to the following conditions: (a) A permanent basement be constructed under the mobile home; (b) Municipal by-law be complied with with respect to setbacks; (c) Health approval be obtained; (d) The survey and severance of this particular lot be completed before any of the above-noted permits or approvals be issued; (e) A building permit must be obtained before any work is commenced.

Charles Brown attended council regarding the poor condition of the Peterson Road from the Harrison Spring to his property. The Roads Committee agreed to investigate the matter with the Road Superintendent.

John and Keith Hill were present to present a preliminary plan of survey of Pine Point. Council agreed that an on-site inspection was required before any further consideration could be given to the application.

Ross Wittington attended on behalf of Dave Stevens who declared a conflict of interest in the subject as he is the owner operator of Beaverbrook Golf Course and an abutting land owner. He refrained from discussion. Wittington advised that the unopened road allowances running through the golf course could create a cloud on the title if the property was sold and the new purchaser needed financial assistance. He requested that his client be allowed to purchase the road allowances as he was continuing to develop the golf course and facilities. The matter of cross country ski trails was also discussed and it was explained that a licence was already in place and a 99 year lease could place an even greater cloud on the title as it is considered a permanent lease. Wittington suggested that a letter be sent to council for consideration outlining that a 10 year lease be permitted with a further renewal of 10 years being considered if all is operating to his client's satisfaction.

Council requested permis-amateur contest for children under 16 years old will take place. The day will conclude with square dancing and a fireworks display at 9:30 p.m.

Minden

Minden's Canada Day festivities are set to begin at 1 p.m. with an opening ceremony and the presentation of heritage awards by the municipality to local residents. "Big Red", a helium filled weather balloon, will also be released as part of the official opening. If the balloon is returned by July 30, the finder will be given a $100 Canada Savings Bond courtesy of the Minden B.I.A.

To help emphasize the old fashioned quality of the day, a picnic lunch will be sold at 1850 prices from 1 to 2 p.m. in the large fair tent that will be set up at the fair grounds.

A variety of contests will also be held in Minden. Among the competitions planned are races supervised by Katimavik workers, a horseshoe tournament, a nail driving contest, and for the more adventurous a pie eating contest and the second annual egg toss championship will also be held. Throughout the day a magician, clowns and cartoon characters will walk among the crowds and entertain children. In addition, a kite flying workshop, conducted by Frank Witter, founding president of the Toronto Kite Club, will begin at 2 p.m. The celebrations will conclude at 6 p.m., with the release of 3,000 balloons, each containing the name of a child. If one of these balloons is found by July 10, both the child who signed his name to the balloon, and the one who finds it will receive a prize.

Kinmount

Celebrations in Kinmount will begin with a craft show at 2 p.m., with a special focus placed on pioneer crafts. The pioneer theme will be continued in a pioneer fashion show in which anyone wearing period costumes can take part. As with the other communities, Kinmount organizers have also planned a wide range of contests for all members of the family. A horseshoe tournament, a baking contest and children's races will all be held during the course of the afternoon. Displays of children's gymnastics and square dancing as well as pony rides are also scheduled as part of the festivities.

Canada Day will conclude in Kinmount with a roast beef dinner, cooked on spits over an open fire. At 8 p.m. an ecumenical church service, conducted by three ministers from Kinmount will be held, followed at dusk by fireworks, set off by local firefighters.

Linked trail scheme wins approval ready for use this winter, Eastmure said.

Government funding will meet capital costs of the project, but the Nordic Trail Association will be responsible for ongoing maintenance.

Eastmure said local resorts have agreed to pay a yearly levy to the association to help defray maintenance and operating costs for trail grooming equipment that will be purchased with the Lottario grant. As well, resorts will include daily trail user fees into their rates. Individual user fees are expected to be about $3 a day, Eastmure said, and local residents will be encouraged to buy family memberships for about $35 a year.

User fees will be assessed on the "honour system", Eastmure said, but the association believes skiers will be willing to help ensure the success of the venture.

The association expects to hire three people for 12 to 15 weeks each year to groom the linked trail system. Existing trails also will be groomed either by the resorts at which they are located, or by the association's equipment on a fee for services basis. Overall maintenance and grooming costs are expected to be about $350 a kilometre, Eastmure said.

Guilford plans stall, fund raising continues

By ELIZABETH CHURCH
Staff Reporter

Plans to improve the facilities at the West Guilford Community Centre have been temporarily stalled due to difficulties in obtaining an application for a Wintario grant. Carol Stamp, spokesman for the West Guilford recreation committee said that although the project has received approximately $25,000 in pledges from local residents, work cannot begin until the request for a grant has been approved.

Included in the plans to upgrade the Community Centre is the installation of lights for the baseball field, the construction of tennis courts and some renovations to the interior of the existing building. In addition to these improvements, a large portion of the funds being raised will be used to put a new roof on the centre.

At present, Stamp explained, most of the pledges of support from local residents have come in the form of hours of work. The legion has, however, donated $3,000 to the project and the Haliburton Rotary Club has promised to donate $6,500 once the request for Wintario money has been approved.

According to the guidelines esablished by the provincial government, local communities must supply an amount equivalent to approximately 35 percent of the total grant. Under the existing formula, the first 25 percent of the project will be paid for from a grant from the Ministry of Culture and Recreation. Wintario will in turn pay for half of the remaining 75 percent with the remaining coming from local sources. Any local funds used to begin a program before it has been approved cannot be used as part of the community's share in that program.

Dysart et al fire chief Howard Roberts introduces reeve Murray Fearrey, left, to area fire fighters attending a regional fire fighting school in Haliburton on Monday. The week long course, sponsored by the

Drinking drivers: summer menace

By CORPORAL J. WATKINS
OPP Headquarters, Peterborough

As we approach the summer months of 1984, drinking drivers on our roadways increase the possibility of injury or death in motor vehicle collisions. The Ontario Provincial Police want to tell you about the drinking driver, who they kill and when.

In 1983, drinking drivers were involved in motor vehicle accidents in the province of Ontario 26,440 times. In 1,512 fatal accidents, they killed 491 times; that is 32.5% of all fatal accidents.

The drinking driver who kills is usually a weekend drinker who drives the highways between 7:00 p.m. and 2:00 a.m., but they kill more often between 1:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m. Their favourite nights to kill are Friday and Saturday, followed closely by Sunday. Early Saturday morning (between 1:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m.), the drinking driver killed 17.4% of all their victims. They also prefer certain months, July and August, then October, September and June. They have certain holiday weekends, the Civic Holiday and Thanksgiving Day weekends, where they cause more deaths than at any other holiday period.

And who is this drinking driver who kills? In most cases, the driver will be a male, age 26 to 35 years, followed closely by males 16 to 26 years. He will prefer a provincial highway (38%) over urban roads (32.7%). County and township roads and private property roads account for the remaining accidents (29.3%).

Drinking drivers do kill themselves more than any other person, particularly in the age group of 26 - 35 years. Passengers in vehicles who are killed are younger, usually 15 - 19 years. Obviously, the best way to avoid being killed in a car accident is to not drink and drive. Drivers who do drink and drive will die more often and in more accidents than any other person in the vehicle. If you do survive the collision, you are most apt to kill an unbuckled passenger.

Allowing people to drink heavily and drive home places your neighbours, friends, and families at risk of becoming a traffic statistic. The Peterborough district saw drinking drivers kill three times last weekend. Drinking and driving makes everyone potential victims. If you think that drinking drivers kill only people from other families, other people's friends, or in other neighbourhoods, you're wrong...and you may be dead wrong. Everyone has a right to demand safe travel throughout Ontario. Part of that right is preventing people who drink from driving on our highways. We can all take action against drinking drivers.

OPP investigate series of breakins at businesses in the Haliburton area

A series of unsolved breakins plaguing businesses in the Haliburton area continued over the weekend. Sometime last Saturday night or early Sunday morning the Dysart et al municipal office was entered through a window and $20 in cash was stolen. The Sky Slider building also was entered through a rear door. A cash register was damaged but nothing was stolen. The Sir Sandford Fleming College office at the Lakeview Centre once again was the target of a break and enter, the third breakin there in less than two weeks. There was minor damage to several lockers, but nothing was stolen.

PC Mike Maher is investigating the incidents.

Good news

The Haliburton Highlands Nordic Trail Association got the good news last week that the Ontario government will provide $150,000 for a system of linked cross country ski trails in Haliburton County. Acceptance of the project, and the fact that provincial officials have come up with all of the money the association requested, prove not only that the idea is a good one, but that the association did the preliminary work in a very convincing and professional manner.

For years, local tourist operators and interested citizens have been forging ahead with the development of top quality cross country ski trails. The Jim Beef trail from Glebe Park and the Pinestone circuit have done much to boost winter business and to give local residents recreational opportunities that were not available previously. But the time had come to take the system a step farther. There were trail loops in other areas, but they were not large enough to serve the needs of a growing legion of dedicated skiers who crave variety, distance and challenge. The Nordic Trail Association saw an opportunity and seized it. And the result will be an extensive system of cross country ski trails unmatched perhaps anywhere else in Canada.

The scheme is an ambitious one, but from the outset, it has been realistic. The $150,000 grant is a very small price to pay for the economic benefits that will accrue to the area. And ongoing maintenance costs will be met by the association through modest user fees to which no one is likely to object.

All in all, the Nordic Trail Association has done an admirable job, and through their efforts, Haliburton County will be a better place in future winters.

A winner

One of the most pleasing aspects of small town living is the pride that local people take in the accomplishments of their fellow citizens. Last week residents of Haliburton had reason to be excited by newspaper reports from the International Games for the Disabled in Unionville, New York. Norah Good, the 26 year old daughter of Harry and Ruth Good of Haliburton, established a new world record in the 3000 metre distance for blind athletes, winning the Gold medal. She also finished second in the 1500 metre distance, breaking the previous record time.

There is more to these accomplishments than mere evidence of athletic prowess. They are a testament to her determination to live a full, rewarding and generous life despite a substantial handicap. They are proof that a strong will and hard work open doors to success.

So congratulations to Norah Good, a remarkable athlete who has made Haliburton proud.

Support them

There are many ways to celebrate Canada, but few of them are more appropriate to the spirit of this nation than to gather with neighbours and friends for a day of old fashioned outdoor fun. This year, local residents and visitors to the area will have a number of opportunities to do just that.

West Guilford has led the way in recent years with an ambitious Canada Day program that includes events for children and adults, and the recognition of an outstanding citizen. This year two more Canada Day programs have been added, one in Minden, where activities will coincide with celebrations of the community's 125th anniversary, and in Kinmount.

Each of these events has been planned by groups of volunteers with a view to helping local residents express their feelings about Canada. Each is worthy of support.

To The Editor:

Regarding your Editorial "Get Tough" in your June 13, 1984 edition, right-on, congratulations! Yours very truly,
J.G. Strickland,

To The Editor:

Thank you for a "great job done", on the newspaper coverage of the Ontario Senior Games, June 6, 7 and 8. By this coverage, you have made all the participants very proud of the fact that they were part of the Games.

The organizers worked hard to make the games possible, but the results will be remembered by the pictures and write-up which your newspaper has procured.

Thank you once again and may we look forward to your continued support of the Drop-In Centre, and the Ontario Senior Games.

People who are asked to speak at graduation exercises, whether at elementary schools, high schools or universities, seldom resist the overwhelming temptation to pass on some advice to the sea of expectant faces they gaze down upon from the podium. Experience, after all, is supposed to lead us to wisdom, and if we can share a little of what we know with a younger generation, we will be helping to make the world a better place, or at least to point some of its citizens in the right direction. There is something touching in this compulsion. It is part of the emotion of the moment. It is a reaffirmation of the beliefs upon which our society is founded, beliefs that people are responsible for their own actions, that knowledge is more valuable than money, and that the enlightened human spirit will always transcend the sordid realities in which so much of life is mired.

In earlier times, neither convocation speakers nor their audiences doubted that education for its own sake was a goal worth pursuing. Students received a thorough grounding in "the best that is known and thought", to borrow a phrase from Victorian poet, essayist and educator Matthew Arnold. Specialization, if it came at all, was secondary to the acquisition of a liberal education. Knowledge of Latin and Greek poets and philosophers was the building block on which the edifice of culture was built.

Today, almost no one reads Latin and Greek, or for that matter, the works of Milton, Donne, Johnson, Ruskin or even Matthew Arnold, all of whom knew the writings of the great thinkers who preceded them. Literature is now a field of specialization, pursued by fewer people than those whose minds and hands have been turned to the creation and manipulation of computers. In a world in which the store of knowledge doubles every five years, it is impossible for anyone to keep up. But that does not mean that young people should throw up their hands in despair, or that they should turn their minds to a specialized field at the exclusion of all other possibilities. It need not mean that a liberal education has lost its value.

Robertson Davies, one of Canada's most accomplished authors and academics, is also one of the nation's best educated men. In a recent speech to a group of graduates at the University of Toronto, he offered this advice to young people facing the pressures of an age of specialization:

"Know at least one thing thoroughly, and after that know as much as you can possibly cram into your head about everything and anything else under the sun, and the longer you live the more

I am going to start my column off this week and take the opportunity to welcome all the visitors who will be coming to the Highlands of Haliburton this weekend just to relax, take part in some summer sports and above all just to have fun and enjoy this Canada Day weekend that's coming up. The weather up to this point has been very nice and let's hope that it will continue long into the weekend. Yes, let's give three cheers as the first big major weekend of the summer season is coming up. School is out and many people will be making preparations to come back to the Highlands of Haliburton for the big weekend while others will be coming back to their cottages to stay for the summer months. For many of you it will be the first time that you have had the opportunity to visit our beautiful Highlands of Haliburton and we sincerely hope that you will enjoy your stay here no matter how short it may be and that you will keep on coming back. If the weatherman will just co-operate you will have the opportunity to enjoy many of the favourite summer sports, such as golf, tennis, swimming, boating, hiking, jogging, you name it and we have it. If you are one of the lucky people who will be staying for the entire months of July and August we can guarantee you that we will have many events and attractions for you to attend in every section of the county. You won't have to miss any of them. For many of you who will be coming here for the first time there is a good chance that this will be the first opportunity you have to read our newspaper and we hope that you will enjoy it.

Unfortunately last year the local Chamber of Commerce sold out of the famous Haliburton Highlands Tartan. We understand that the tartan is back and can be purchased at Stedman's stores both in Haliburton and Minden and at Robinson's General Store in Dorset.

I received a short letter last week from the Canadian Red Cross Society asking me if I would announce that the Red Cross Blood Programme needs your help and ongoing support during the summer months. Many of the blood donors will be busy during the summer season either away on vacation or involved in other summer activities. As you know already, the need for blood doesn't take a vacation. It takes many healthy blood donors to help treat the sick and injured in our area every day, every season of the year. Please give blood at a Red Cross blood donor clinic before you go away and come home to a community that's alive and well. The need for blood donors doesn't take a vacation.

The annual Canada Day Celebration is all set for the West Guilford Recreation Centre this coming Sunday, July 1. As usual an outstanding line-up of events is ready to go including a horseshoe tournament, Green Lake Run, Pine Lake Swim, swimming races, foot races, children's amateur contest, Canada Day poem contest, Canadian trivia contest, pie baking contest, barbeque supper and the highlight of the big event will be a giant fireworks display in the evening. Everyone is welcome and admission is free. Make it a date now to take along the entire family for the day of your life.

While making my rounds last week I noticed a sign erected by the Ministry of Natural Resources that really caught my eye. The sign along the road featured a drawing of a forest that had been ravaged by a forest fire with the words on top "Some Campfire". There's a message here for all of us.

Mrs. Ruth Gorri, principal of the Victoria Street School in Haliburton, was a recent guest speaker at the Rotary Club of Haliburton. She made a most enlightening presentation, complete with handouts, regarding young children and violence pointing out the effects of Mr. T. and his fellow TV heroes on the young and their interaction with each other. Mrs. Gorri suggested that parental influence is needed to balance a child's behaviour.

The Haliburton County Echo is in need of old photos for its Pic of the Past section. If you have any old photos we would appreciate hearing from you. Please send them in by mail or just drop them off at the office. There is only one thing that we ask you to do. Make sure that you supply us with enough information for the caption under the photo.

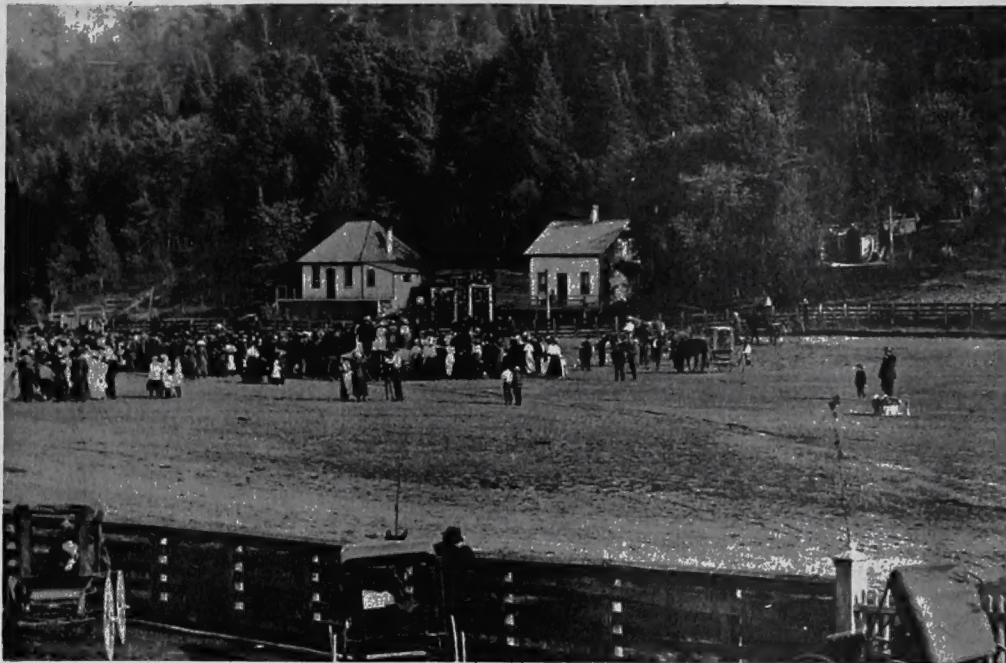

Not being able to take it with you is not the problem anymore. The problem now is managing to leave some behind.

The annual year end meeting of the Rotary Club of Haliburton will be held this Thursday night, June 28 at Wig-A-Mog Inn. The proceedings will begin on or about 4:00 p.m. with the annual scenic boat cruise followed by the dinner and meeting at 6:30 p.m.

One day last week Willis Walker of Haliburton came into the office and presented me with an old bill taken out of a bill book from the J.A. Robertson Meat Market in Haliburton dated August 12, 1933. The bill was made out to Closs Barry of West Guilford, and on this bill were the following items: 100 lb. of Middlings, $1.50; 100 lb. of wheat, $1.90; 400 lb. of beef at 6 1/2 cents a lb., $26.00; hide, $1.00. Check out these prices today and you'll find that they are a lot higher.

Report from Parliament

By Bill Scott M.P.

Now that the Liberal Party has chosen Canada's next Prime Minister, it is time that they call an election and see if the people of Canada agree with their choice. Our Parliamentary system is based upon the representation of Canadians by their Members of Parliament. The Prime Minister is the M.P. who is the leader of the Party that has the largest number of seats in the House of Commons. At the moment, that is not the case and it will not be so until a Federal Election is called. Only when the people of Canada decide will we know who our Prime Minister is. It is my firm belief that this should be as soon as possible. Our Party, under the Hon. Brian Mulroney, is ready to face the task of governing and we feel that the electorate must be given the choice of whom they want now. I am confident that you, and the rest of the county, will make the right choice.

In my opinion, one of the first tasks of the next government, be it Liberal or Progressive Conservative, is to reduce the deficit. What this government has failed to acknowledge are the consequences of deficit financing. When we run a deficit, we must pay the interest on that deficit. Every taxpayer must pay a share of this interest on their taxes. The cost of paying the debt in fiscal 1983-84 is forecast to be $18.1 billion, rising to $24.7 billion in fiscal 1987-88. In order to keep the percentage of your tax dollar spent on paying the interest on the deficit at or around the currently estimated 21.5%, taxes will have to increase drastically. As well, borrowing this kind of money annually on the international market has a great effect on the supply and demand for money and thus inflates the interest rates that you and I must pay to borrow money.

Queen's Park Report

Wintario Capital Grants

I am pleased to announce that a number of municipalities in our riding have been awarded a Wintario Capital Grant. They are: Township of Dalton: $19,082 for renovations and the construction of an addition at the Dalton Community Centre. Township of Eldon: $73,778 for the construction of a community hall at the Bolsover Community Centre. Townships of Laxton, Digby and Longford: $82,800 for the construction of a community recreation centre at the Ward Memorial Park site. Township of Manvers: $5,450 for the construction of an open air pavilion at the Janetville Community Park. Village of Woodville: $11,865 for the construction of tennis courts and a creative playground.

Highway Contract

I am also pleased that Transportation and Communications Minister James Snow has announced the award of a contract for Highway 503 in Port Hope district.

The contract is for grading, drainage, granular base, hot mix paving and resurfacing on Highway 503 from Highway 48, Kirkfield, northerly for 3.1 km.

This reconstruction and resurfacing project on Highway 503 is initiated to upgrade the geometrics of the highway. An urban type cross-section will be constructed in the community of Kirkfield.

This will improve driving conditions and reduce the necessity for frequent maintenance. Work on the project is scheduled to begin in July 1984 with completion set for late summer, 1984. The contract is awarded to Harnden and King Construction (Ontario) Limited of Cobourg, Ontario at a cost of $364,317.

Child Welfare Legislation

The Ministry of Community and Social Services has announced that he will retract clauses of the proposed child welfare legislation which would have given him sweeping powers over the province's 1,800 voluntary children's agencies. He has informed the Legislature that he intends to amend the proposed Child and Family Services Act to empower him to take over only the province's 51 government-financed Children's Aid Societies without Cabinet approval. With this latest amendment the Minister will need Cabinet approval if he wants to seize or dissolve the board of directors of any other agencies with volunteer boards of directors such as children's mental health centres, family counselling centres or other child-oriented services. It is anticipated that this announcement will be welcomed by many child agency representatives who have been protesting recently over what they perceived to be excessive takeover powers for the Minister.

Question and Answer

QUESTION: ARE WOMEN STILL PAID LESS THAN MEN?

By CATHERINE DENHOLM

Everyone agrees now that women and men doing the same work with the same skill, seniority and efficiency should receive the same pay.

The problem talked about by all Liberal leadership candidates and by federal and provincial legislators is, "equal pay for work of equal value", which is a different concept. All of these people agree that the idea is right, that it should be implemented, but they also, one way or another, say it is too difficult, too expensive, and not understood well enough to do anything about now.

The example used to explain the idea is a comparison of salaries paid to switchboard operators and parking attendants at the provincial legislature. The skills, responsibilities and value to the employer were comparable but parking lot attendants were receiving a higher hourly wage.

Last summer two young people were fortunate to find jobs to help with their university expenses. The young man's job was in construction, he was unskilled but he helped and was given responsibility as he learned. He did a good job. He made twice the hourly wage paid the young woman who was a helper in a nursing home. She fed old people who could not help themselves, she helped keep them clean, helped when they had accidents of their bodily functions. She was cheerful and patient and listened to their stories, tried to make their life happier. She did a good job.

Equal pay for work of equal value is not a women's issue - it is a rethinking of our values. What is important?

Traditionally men's work has been considered more important than what women were doing. The caring for and nurturing of children and old folks has been thought to be a part of women's destiny - something which should be done without financial reward.

If women are becoming parking lot attendants and if they do work in construction as men do start to man the telephones and help in nursing homes then equal pay for work of equal value does become more easily recognized as a matter of fairness.

From the Chamber

As a temporary measure to promote tourism in Ontario, visitors to the province will be eligible to apply for a refund of the 5% retail sales tax paid on transient accommodation during the period May 16, 1984 to December 31, 1984, inclusive. The tax paid for the billing day commencing any time on May 15, 1984 and the billing date ending January 1, 1985 will be refunded. The tax paid for the billing date commencing January 1, 1985 will not be refundable.

Some establishments providing transient accommodation operate under the American Plan or Modified American Plan. Under these plans, the purchaser is charged a single rate for both accommodation and meals. Also effective for the period May 16, 1984 to December 31, 1984 inclusive, a partial tax refund will be allowed on American Plan and Modified Plan charges. The refund will apply only to the tax paid on the accommodation portion of the plan determined by the following formulae. Type of Plan: Accommodation and three meals, 3% of total charge for meals and accommodation refundable. Accommodation and two meals, 3.5% of total charge for meals and accommodation refundable. Accommodation and one meal, 4% of total charge for meal and accommodation refundable.

Visitors may submit a refund claim by completing the application in the pamphlet "Ontario Yours to Discover" published by the Ministry of Tourism and Recreation. The pamphlet is available at all retail sales tax offices and tourist information centres. If difficulty is encountered in obtaining pamphlets, call the Ministry of Revenue's information centre toll free anywhere in Ontario, 1-800-263-3960. The Chamber will carry a supply for your convenience.

As you know we did experience some difficulties with our 1984 Directory. We apologize to our members for any inconvenience this may have caused. We cannot undo what has happened in the past, however, we can promise to do our best to serve you in the future. With this in mind we have arranged a 'free' marketing seminar for our members to take place at Sir Sandford Fleming's Northern Campus in Haliburton Village on Wednesday, June 27, at 7 p.m.

The seminar will be presented by Allcom Marketing Inc. of Toronto. They will be involved in marketing the Haliburton Highlands and producing our directories in the future. The seminar will cover a fresh approach to marketing and should prove highly beneficial to all business people in the county. Please plan to attend.

The manager will be calling on members throughout the summer. We have set aside three hours a day in an attempt to visit all members if possible. Sincere thanks to the members that we have visited to date; the warm welcome extended to us was most encouraging.

This week we welcome a new member: Hall's Lake Esso and Communications, owned and operated by Dale and Carol MacDonald. The MacDonalds sell CB and VHF radios, stereos and antennas. They also do car repairs and have a Class A mechanic on site.

Glamorgan Township have an excellent summer program outlined in their Bicentennial brochure. Pick one up at the Chamber office and join the fun.

Don't miss the annual Strawberry Supper and Bazaar to be held at Ingoldsby United Church on June 30. For more information call D. Wilkins, 286-1587.

When Earthworms Eat

I'm gradually converting my garden soil from a clay that approaches concrete to something more friendly to root crops and my less than heroic strength with a hoe. It's a long haul, taking countless loads of topsoil, peat, sand, manure and whatever mulching material I can lay my hands on.

Fortunately, while I struggle on top there is a growing army of volunteers doing yeoman service down below. Earthworms.

Pesticides, weed killers and chemical fertilizers have made living impossible for these tiny soldiers, as well as for toads and other natural allies of the farmer and gardener. But underneath my mulch, earthworms will have a chance to thrive and do their work.

The naturalist Charles Darwin estimated that about 30,000 earthworms live in an acre, and that each worm eats 20 ounces of soil in a year. That means about 15 tons of soil is worked through the gizzards of worms each year on an acre. Not only do earthworms bring soil to the surface, aerating it, but they are continually eating and digesting organic matter in and on top of the soil. The grinding action of their digestive process releases minerals that are locked away and makes these minerals available to plants. Lots of questions occur when one looks at an earthworm. I used to wonder which end was which, until I learned that the head is pointed, the tail flattened. I can't remember now whether that was before or after I accepted a childhood dare to bite one in half.

Both sexes have male and female parts and they mate in a very peculiar way to them. Two individuals place sperm in receptacles in each other. A cocoon is then secreted and is shed over

Extra inning hit means defeat

Kinsmen win over Haliburton Lumber with 8th inning RBI

By ELIZABETH CHURCH
Staff Reporter

An extra inning single by Vince Duchene brought in the winning run to give the Haliburton Kinsmen an 8-7 victory over Haliburton Lumber last Tuesday night. In the second game of the evening, Curry Motors took an early lead and defeated Beachli Construction 7-4.

On Thursday night, Beachli Construction built up the score early in the game, and despite an attempted comeback in the seventh inning, defeated the Haliburton Kinsmen 8-4. In the final game of the week, Haliburton Lumber edged out Curry Motors 9-7.

In the first game of the week, Haliburton Lumber took an early lead with singles by Tran LaRue, and David and Bernie Nicholls. Although LaRue was taken out on a fielder's choice, Leigh Bull drove the Nicholls brothers in with a single later in the inning.

In the third inning Haliburton Lumber went on to take a 3-0 lead with a home by Bernie Nicholls. In the bottom of the third, however, the Kinsmen got on the scoreboard when Brian Mulholland led off with a triple and was brought home by a single from Roy Scott.

Haliburton Lumber scored an additional run in the top of the fourth inning when Phil Smith drove a long ball to the outfield which resulted in an in-the-park home run. The Kinsmen, however, were also able to bring one man across the plate in this inning as Bill Whittaker got on base with a single and was brought home later in the inning.

In the fifth inning, Haliburton Lumber widened the gap once again with a sacrifice fly by Leigh Bull which brought in Bernie Nicholls. It was in this inning, however, that the Kinsmen began to was sent into extra innings when Bill Whittaker hit an RBI single which brought Duchene across the plate.

The Kinsmen were able to hold Haliburton Lumber to a single man on base in the top of the eighth and then went on to win the game 8-7 with a single by Vince Duchene that brought in Mike MacNaull.

Curry Motors over Beachli
Curry Motors took a com-

hit by a wild pitch and Darryl Stamp made it on base with a single. Both runners were brought in later in the inning.

In the bottom of the fifth, however, Curry Motors once again built up a four run margin, with singles by Barry Boice and Wade Stamp and a double by Kevin Sisson that brought both Boice and Stamp home.

In the top of the sixth inning, however, Beachli Construction tried once again to make a comeback. Tony Salvatori led off the drive by getting on base as a result of an error by the second basemen. Darrell Stamp got on with a walk, and both players were brought home to make the score 7-4. Although the Beachli team was able to hold Curry Motors at seven runs, they were unable to make any headway in the top of the seventh. As a result, the final score remained 7-4.

Beachli defeats Kinsmen
On Thursday, Beachli Construction made up for their earlier loss as they defeated the Kinsmen 8-4. Beachli was first on the scoreboard in the top of the second inning with a single by Kevin Finch and an RBI double by Lew Brown that brought the first run in. Brown was later brought home for the second run, while Roy Hewitt hit a single to bring in Bob Johnston and made the score 3-0.

Dixie Lee soccer team elated by win over Bracebridge Jrs.

By JIM MILNE

The Dixie Lee soccer team earned their second win of the season playing against Bracebridge Juniors in Haliburton. It was a windy day but fortunately the rain stopped before game time. Dixie Lee played with the wind in the first half and tried to outrun the defenders after Andrew Shapiera's long kicks from the goal. No goals, however, were scored.

Playing in the second half against the wind, Dixie Lee used a more defensive formation with four midfielders. Tim Davies cleared the ball well and Bracebridge was unable to make full use of their wind advantage. Midway through the half Paul Milne scored from close in after dribbling the ball around a defender. That was the only goal of the game and Dixie Lee won 1-0.

As the team approaches the end of the first half of the season it seems that they are equal in ability to Bracebridge Centennials, Orillia City and Bracebridge Juniors. The Juniors are exceptional because all their players are less than 20 years old. Dixie Lee is perhaps exceptional in having a great spread in ages from youngest to oldest. The other five teams in the league are quite strong although they can be beaten. Last year Dixie Lee beat Parry Sound and Huntsville and this year Muskoka Sun. The strongest team in the league is Orillia Inter and Dixie Lee will meet each head, taking with it the eggs of one and sperm of the other. The eggs hatch in two or three weeks, after fertilization in the cocoon. The young closely resemble the adults. Earthworms have no apparent eyes, yet they are sensitive to light. They are highly sensitive to soil vibrations and if the soil is agitated may come to the surface. Although they live underground, they come to the surface at night to feed on organic matter. After a rain, they may appear on the surface, where they have emerged to escape drowning.

Darwin spent 42 years of his life watching habits of earthworms and concluded that they play an important part in the history of the world than most of us realize. In my garden, every little bit helps.

the board in the second, when Carl Anderson brought Hugh Nichol across the plate on a triple and Brian Mulholland allowed Anderson to come in with an RBI single.

Beachli Construction quickly strengthened their lead, however, with a home run by Tony Salvatori and a single by Lew Brown that brought in John Robinson for an additional run. Their lead was further increased in the fifth inning when once again Lew Brown hit a single that brought Robinson home.

In the top of the sixth inning Beachli Construction showed their strength once again as a triple by Roy Hewitt drove home Bob Johnston and a sacrifice fly by Mark Schell brought Hewitt in.

In the bottom of the seventh the Kinsmen were able to regain some ground with a single by Barry Sawh and a homer by John Wilson that also brought Shaw home. Despite their efforts, however, the Kinsmen were unable to close in any further. Beachli Construction took the game with a final score of

Lumber over Curry Motors

In the final game of the week, Haliburton Lumber took on Curry Motors. Scoring in this game started early as Haliburton Lumber brought in three runners in the top of the first inning. David Nicholls kicked things off with a triple and was driven in by his brother Bernie. Dwight Sisson followed with an RBI single that brought Bernie across the plate, while Leigh Bull also hit a single to bring in Sisson.

Curry Motors, however, were able to stay even with Haliburton Lumber, as they also scored three runs in the bottom of the first. Pitcher Bernie Nicholls allowed two walks, while Kevin Sisson followed with a home run to make the score three all.

In the top of the second, Haliburton Lumber again took the lead with a double by Phil Smith, who was brought in by a double from David Nicholls. Mike Hatkoski was later brought home by a fly ball hit by Bernie Nicholls.

In the top of the fourth,

Haliburton Lumber increased their lead even further with a single by David Nicholls and a triple by Bernie Nicholls that brought David home. An additional run was scored when a single by Dwight Sisson allowed Bernie to cross the plate.

Curry Motors closed the gap, however, with a triple by Earl Bull that brought in Bob Penfold and Mike Fearrey. A single by Kevin Sisson brought in Bull to make the score 7-6 for Haliburton Lumber.

In the top of the sixth inning, however, Haliburton Lumber secured their lead with an RBI single by Bernie Nicholls that brought in Mike Hatkoski. After stealing two bases, Leigh Bull brought Nicholls in on a sacrifice play.

In the bottom of the seventh Curry Motors gave it one last try with a double by Allan Cooper and a single by Earl Bull that brought Cooper in for the run. Haliburton Lumber was able to hold them to a single run, however, and went on to win the game 9-7.

Tubing Down the River...On a Sunday Afternoon

As in inner tubes. Great big truck tire inner tubes, to be exact. I suppose you can't picture a woman on the high side of 40 enjoying that particular pastime, can you? As they say, don't knock it, if you haven't tried it.

It's a really cool way to relax on a blistering summer day, and yet get a nice tan. First, you have to have an inner tube for each adventurous party. Make sure it's well filled and patched so you don't have to swim home. Next, you've got to find a willing person to drive two to four people, plus an equal number of tubes up to the bridge.

The worst part of the whole exercise is having to climb down the bank to the water in your bare feet without stepping on any hidden glass. Then place the tube carefully at the water's edge, holding on so that it doesn't start without you. Line up your body, and hop, jump, or just fall onto the tube, and you're off.

It's not exactly white water rapids. But, then, we're not kids anymore either, and we're more easily impressed. The current is quite brisk, and there's lots of bends in the river, so you have to pay attention, or you'll wind up in the tag-alders, or worse yet, in the log jams. The first hundred feet have a couple of mini-rapids where the water is very shallow, and there are several rocks. After that, you can pretty much relax, and enjoy the view.

We usually stop at one or two swimming holes along the way. These are sandy places in the river bed, where the water is deep and crystal clear. There are little deposits of multi-coloured stones, deep-green clumps of mossy grass, and even an occasional tire, decorating the bottom. When we feel we've exercised enough, we hop back onto the tubes and continue on down the river.

Often, we spot raccoon, or deer, or beaver tracks along the muddy banks. Sometimes, we manage to get fairly close to a family of ducks. We do try not to get too close to anything. It takes about forty-five minutes before we reach the mouth of the river, and Cranberry Bay. Then we have to work. As we are no longer floating with the current, we have to paddle fiercely, with our hands. We are now bucking the breeze and the lily pads all the way to our dock.

Now things get messy. Unfortunately, our dock lies not on a sandy beach. That means getting off the tubes and onto the dock via a certain amount of muck. On top of which, after being prone aboard an inner tube for the better part of an hour, this aging body loses some of its agility. Consequently, I am last off the tube, with the help of one or more strong hands, and lots of creaking, and groaning. After which, we all hose off our feet and flop on the nearest lounges for a well deserved rest.

I guess you think I'm nuts. But I can't help it. My body may be getting on, but my mind is still just a kid. Besides, you will note, I never go alone.

The Haliburton Horticultural Society will keep three students busy for the next eight weeks looking after flower beds in Head Lake Park and other areas.

Home Help for seniors and disabled persons is one of the programs that operates out of our office. The purpose of it is to provide good quality home help and maintenance at a reasonable rate to those who are unable to do it for themselves. This service is very popular because it enables many to remain in their homes and to conserve their energy so that they can enjoy themselves doing more fun activities. If you require someone to help you call our office at 457-2941. We will take your request and pass it along to our new Home Help convenor, Darlene McElwain. She will then either give you name(s) of people who could help you or if you like she will phone someone and make the necessary arrangements for you. Thank you Darlene for taking on this very important service.

If you are an energetic person with time on your hands you may be interested in becoming a home helper. We provide this service in all areas of our county. Perhaps your area is one where our list of home helpers is small, such as in Kinmount, Wilberforce, Carnarvon, Harcourt, Dorset, Highland Grove areas, but the need is there. Call us at 457-2941 for more details. If you do decide to become a home helper we are sure you will agree with the rest of our helpers that you will definitely get more out of it than just money - our clients are lovely people.

Guild News

By VIRGINIA MUENZEL

The word is out, and so are the tickets! Best of all, the price is the same, $20 for three concerts. You can't get tickets that cheap in the city. The concert committee of the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts has lined up another superb program of concerts.

This year, all three of the performances will be coming to us fresh from the Toronto International Festival. They are all highly acclaimed, and have each gotten rave reviews from the critics.

The first group, 'Repercussion', will perform on November 26, 1984, at 7:00 p.m. If it snows, hire a dogsled. If there's a downpour, find an ark. That's what one music critic said about this unique group of percussionists. You'll never forget them once you've seen them. Whether you're eight, or eighty, they'll delight, amaze, and thrill you with their choreographed performance, complete with jokes, stunts, snappy costumes, and evocative lighting effects.

This group are the Canadian Brass of percussion. If it can be hit, they play it. And what they play is quite simply, any form of music you can imagine...Latin rhythms, orchestral works, piano sonatas, ragtime, and, of course, rock and roll. It's the hottest evening of musicianship you're liable to find.

'Eritage' will perform on April 1, 1985, at 8:00 p.m., Eritage is a terrific French-Canadian folk band. The six-man, multi-instrument group from Montreal mixes traditional and current folk music. The tunes are an appealing blend of foot-stomping rhythm with heart-tugging melodies with words that picture the life of the habitants. The poetry is close to the earth and the life that is sweated from it. They sing of the farmer, the trapper, and the fisherman and the families they often must leave.

Everyone in Eritage excels on a variety of instruments, and most of the arrangements are joint efforts. The result is that the program appeals to a wider audience. The accordion and the fiddle can beat out a toe-tapping jig or reel and the mood is instantly changed when the fiddle is joined by the cello and bass to back a vocal. Eritage's exceptional background has won the group outstanding recognition, both in Canada and the U.S.

'Prima Donna' performs on April 23, 1985 at 8:00 p.m. If you love opera, even if you think you hate it, you have got to see this performance. It is, on one hand, an operatic spoof, full of irreverence and humour, but, not without its sensitive, provocative moments. The show starts with Mary Lou Fallis coming in from shopping, with groceries in a child's stroller. She sets herself up, beginning with her debut as a 2½-year-old, warbling about the pleasures of being a yellow luck. It goes on from there to describe her career.

Prima Donna is a splendid entertainment, with enough real singing to identify its perpetrator as something more than a latter-day Anna Russell. So if you'd like to hear the low-down on the prima donna life, from a coloratura soprano who does not take herself too seriously, you must see this masterpiece of a performance.

That is the line-up of concerts. The committee has done an excellent job of finding the best of entertainment for a very reasonable price. Now, it's up to us to support them. Let's not allow sagging ticket sales to threaten the existence of our marvelous concert series like it did last year. It's a great evening for a special date. We hope we'll see you all there.

Minden W.I. marks their 77th year

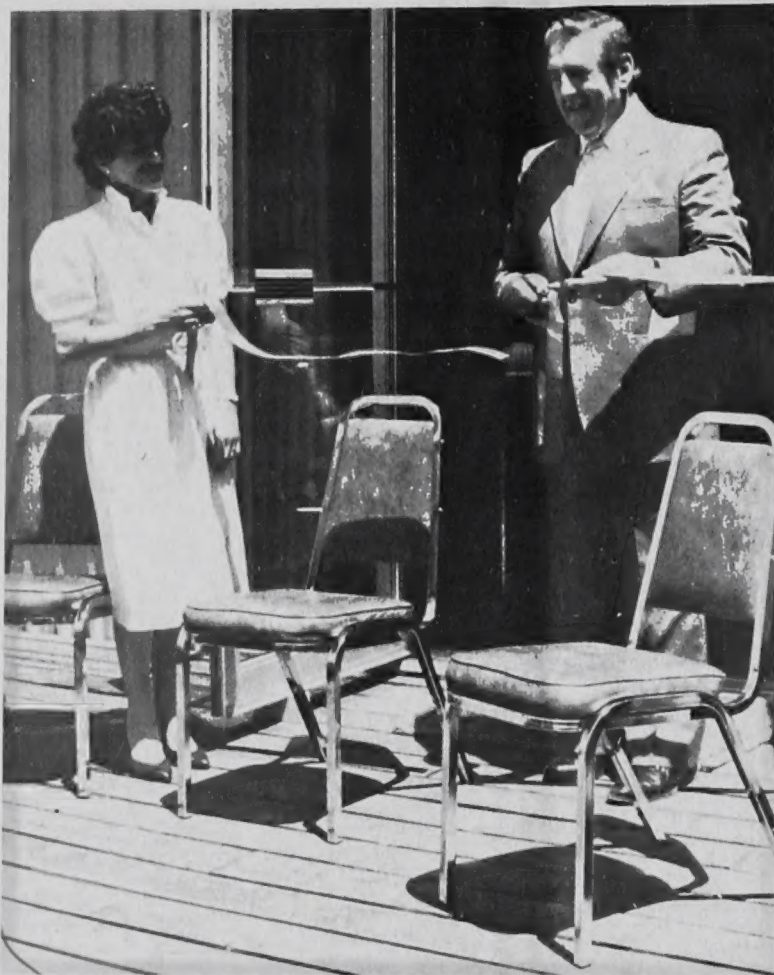

By JEANNE SEARS

Wednesday, June 20 was a special day for Minden Women's Institute. At noon 24 members and three guests enjoyed the bountiful pot luck lunch. Then the business was done; Mrs. W. Moore arranged for new Secret Pals and the group found out who had been so kind to them in the past year. A donation is being sent towards the family picnic day July 1.

Antiques, Tweedsmuir history books and minute books and other W.I. booklets were on display. There was a 77th anniversary cake centering a table with candelabra and floral arrangements and all signed the guest book. Mrs. L. Cox, president, called the group to order and all joined in Oh Canada, Opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect with Mrs. D. Cox at the piano. Special guests were made welcome. Several duets were given by Shirley Colliss and Norma Burke. Readings were given by Mrs. A. Kernohan and Mrs. D. Grant and the group's history was read by Mrs. M. Sears. Ed Pergolas, deputy reeve, spoke a few words. Mrs. M. Robson, Victoria East District president, brought greetings and spoke briefly, and Mrs. Percy Junking, board member of Division 7 also spoke. Many members were in period costumes and at the conclusion, Life Members, Mrs. Fred Wright and Mrs. Wm. Cox cut the cake.

God Save the Queen followed and all enjoyed the luncheon. The door prize was won by Mrs. D. Cox and the Trillium Mug by Mrs. E. Graham of Lakeview Branch. Members were pleased to see members from other branches in the district. It was certainly a lovely day to celebrate Minden's 125th and the W.I.'s 77th anniversary.

Seniors Drop-In Centre co ordinator Anna Nichol holds the ribbon while MP Bill Scott cuts it to officially open the new facility at the Drag River Municipal Building in Haliburton on Friday. Many local seniors were on hand to take part in the festivities.

Senior League

By BERT HARRISON

Saturday we had a special time down in our gym. Members of the Anglican, Catholic and United Churches of Minden, Carnarvon and Maple Lake came to welcome Archbishop Scott and give him a hand a shake. To talk and shake hands with everyone, he did his best. We felt quite honoured to meet this special guest.

Again there was an interesting service in the chapel Sunday night. Rev. John Burgess is clever, he took his message from John.

Someone is back with us again, who we are glad to see. Chris Precor, after undergoing surgery.

Monday morning down at fun and fitness, Teddy Carr got a win. He knocked down most of the bowling pins. Monday night interesting movies were shown for all who did go; Beaver Dam, the Highland Heart of Nova Scotia and Living with Snow.

Tuesday morning Rev. John James of Haliburton United Church came, the chapel pulpit to fill, for Rev. Westhaver, who at present is quite ill.

Tuesday afternoon we went to Extensicare to engage in carpet bowling. You have to be on your toes to keep the balls a-rolling. When it comes your turn, just get up, that is if you want to chalk up points. They say bowling is good for you, it loosens up your joints. We were treated royally while over there; these senior homes have a lot to share.

Tuesday night the Watson and Smith entertainers came, but it was so hot they said they might come back before September but they may not.

Wednesday was such a lovely day, we packed a picnic lunch, climbed in our bus and headed Dorset way. We had a jolly lot of volunteers. Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown, Carrie Drysdale, Beth Parker. Bless them all. Beth armed me around all day, so I wouldn't slip or fall.

We ate our lunch in a nice park, where we spent a happy hour. Then up the hill we went to see the Dorset tower. Then back we came to the Frost Centre. We thought we might set a cool reception, when we came to enter. But a fine lady, bless her fine heart, showed us through the building and told us about their activities here. Then she showed us a film of what takes place every month of the year. We saw a moose and a deer as we travelled on our way back to Hyland Crest to end a perfect day.

Edna Cowen, with her daughter, spent a holiday. We missed you Edna, when you were away.

Our Hyland Crest auxiliary ladies served a tasty lunch this Thursday afternoon, with tea, milk, soft drinks too. Without these fine members, I don't know what we'd do.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Deacon with Brian Hamilton called the bingo numbers Thursday night. Thanks for a job well done.

Our entertainers came again Friday afternoon to lead us in a sing-a-long. Jean Cox to lead us in a tune, Grace sings a song or two and reads some interesting rhymes. We look forward to this day, we have a jolly time.

Mark of Distinction: Don't fight gray hair or wrinkles - A lot of people admire them, knowing it takes lots of laughs and tears, and also years, to acquire them.

Presbyterial officers gave short reports in regard to their respective offices. Workshops are being planned for September 24 and October 1 with June Devolin, program convener, in charge.

Representatives to Presbytery will be the six regional chairpersons along with Lillian Nixon, Thelma Endicott, Florence Harrison and Olive McDonald.

Fall Rallies will be held for Region 2 at Dalrymple on October 17, Region 5 at Cambridge St. United on October 10, and Region 6 at Maple Lake on October 3.

Members were informed that the Korean Women would be attending the Fall Rally at Ebenezer United Church in Oshawa Presbytery on October 16, and would also be at Ajax on October 15 at 8 p.m.

Following lunch Rev. Gordon Roberts, Stewardship convener for Lindsay Presbytery, showed slides in connection with a stewardship presentation. Thelma Endicott also had literature available. It was noted that only 55% of the United Church members support the Mission and Service Fund.

Members were reminded that the women's events will be held at Camp Quin-Mo-Lac on September 7 to 9 and at Kingston November 16 - 17. Closing date for registration at Camp Quin-Mo-Lac is August 20. A youth event is planned for Cannington on November 16 - 18. The Presbyterial annual meeting will be held at Sunderland United Church on March 20.

The next executive meeting will be held at Oakwood United Church on October 29.

Correspondent is never at a loss for words

At 91, Bert Harrison has a way with rhyme

By ELIZABETH CHURCH
Staff Reporter

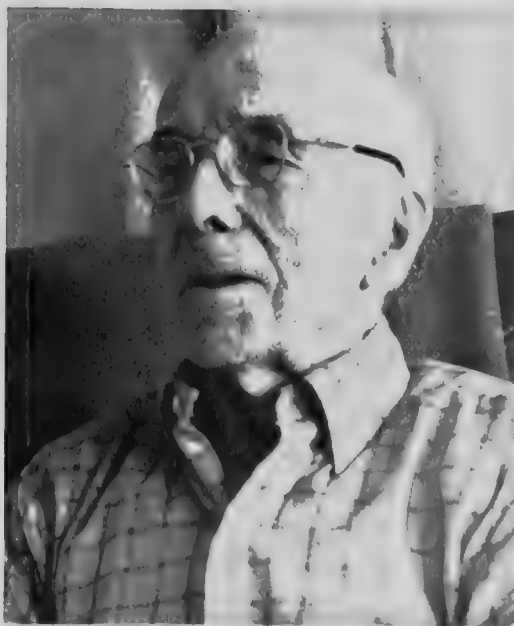

IT'S never too late to try something new, and certainly Bert Harrison is a striking example of that. At age 91, Harrison is not only one of the oldest residents at Hyland Crest Senior Citizens Home, he is also one of the best known. The cause of this prominence is the Senior League column which he prepares each week for both local papers. After a lifetime of working as a farmer, Harrison has the opportunity to write, a talent he has worked at as a hobby for many years. Now, Harrison is kept busy reporting the week's events in rhyme.

"I've been able to write rhymes for as long as I can remember," Harrison says. As a young man, he recalls, he even used his flair for verse to fool friends. One winter, he explains, he composed poems about a friend he was working with in the bush and mailed them to his girlfriend in Lindsay. "For a long time they couldn't figure out where the poems were coming from," he recalls, smiling at the memory. In later years, he continued to write poems for special occasions, and while he wrote for his own enjoyment, his talent also gained the attention of many local residents. As a result, when Harrison came to Hyland Crest almost three years ago, he was quickly approached by a nurse from Maple Lake who knew of his writing and thought he would be the ideal person to take over the weekly reports.

"As soon as I came in, they got after me," he says.

Even though Harrison was recruited to the job, he says he enjoys writing his weekly column and adds that he has received many letters of congratulation and encouragement as a result of his work. "It's good to hear from people," he says. "It kind of cheers you up a bit." Harrison notes that he's never had any problem finding things to write about at Hyland Crest. "There's quite a bit going on," he says. "People mention things to me that they think I might like to put in the paper, and every day I write down what has happened." At the end of the week, Harrison compiles his notes and composes his verses. "Sometimes if I'm just sitting in my room the rhymes will just come to me and I'll scribble them down with a pencil," he explains.

Not only does Harrison now have the responsibility of recounting Hyland Crest's weekly news, other residents and staff there have also come to think of him as their resident poet. "Whenever someone retires or there's a special celebration, someone usually asks me if I'd write a poem," he says. "I always try to come up with something."

In addition to keeping up with events at Hyland Crest, Harrison also has an extensive knowledge of the county and its past. Born in Carnarvon in 1894, he has spent many of his 91 years in Haliburton and has seen the area undergo a great many changes in that time. "When I was a boy," he remembers, "most people farmed and everyone owned cattle. I was born in a log cabin," he says, and adds that the farm his family worked

Coboconk students relive the past

By KELLY GRAHAM
Norland Correspondent

ON THURSDAY, June 21 the students and teachers at Coboconk Public School spent a school day as they normally would - one hundred and twelve years ago!

Every student and teacher came to school dressed in pioneer clothing and parents were invited to attend in the afternoon if they too would dress up.

To start off the day each teacher was presented with an authentic copy of "rules for teachers" taken from an 1872 register. The rules were as follows: 1. Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys. 2. Each teacher will bring a pail of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's session. 3. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle the nibs to the individual taste of the pupils. 4. Men teachers may take one evening per week for courting purposes, two if they go to church. 5. Following 10 hours in school the teacher may pass the time reading the Bible or similar good books. 6. Women instructors who marry or partake of improper conduct will be dismissed. 7. All instructors should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of their earnings for their benefit during declining years so they will not become a burden on society. 8. Any teacher who smokes, drinks liquor in any form, visits pool or public house or is shaved in a barber shop will give reason to suspect his worth, intention, and honesty. Note: The teacher who performs his labour faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of 25 cents per week in his pay, providing the Board of Education approves.

That morning each teacher had a classroom of pupils ranging from grades kindergarten to eight. During the morning recitations, bible readings, spelling bees and arithmetic drills were conducted. The afternoon was entirely planned by the grade seven and eight pupils. Some of the activities included wheelbarrow races, three-legged and sack races, hog-calling contests and was later turned into a gravel pit.

Despite these changes, Harrison says he is glad to see the county develop as it has. "Progress is a good thing. Things can't go on the same way."

Looking back on the years he has spent here, Harrison believes the biggest change to the community occurred with the construction of Highway 35. "It opened the county right up and gave a lot of mane jobs," he recalls.

Harrison has also gained a reputation at Hyland Crest for his musical talents. "I play the mouth organ," he explains. "We used to have a quartet, but our banjo player went home." Harrison still plays, however, when he gets the chance. "I like to take it along when we go on bus trips and play on the way," he says.

Most of all, Harrison says he is proud of his family, and the accomplishments of his five children. I have 22 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren," he notes. "I think I'm doing pretty well for 91."

Lung association picks executive

Submitted

Members attending the annual meeting of the Victoria Haliburton Lung Association in Lindsay on June 13 met a new executive headed by president Susan Hillier, the first woman to serve in this capacity for the local association.

The annual report included a message from outgoing president Arnett Matthews and a report of the 1983-84 Christmas Seal Campaign. Total contributions as of March 31, 1984 were $21,572.75. This included donations from regular contributors, local businesses, householder mailings, as well as Holly Day, Christmas Seal Chairman Ralph Stokes, conveyed his thanks and those of the Association, to the residents of Victoria and Haliburton Counties for their generous donations.

The programs of the Association were outlined during the meeting. These include help to people with respiratory problems. Cold air masks were once again distributed to people who have difficulty breathing in frosty air. Upon authorization, the Association loans equipment, such as air compressor units, to patients who are unable to purchase this equipment to ease their breathing. Several maximist machines have been placed in area schools for the use of asthmatic children during the school day.

As part of a health education program, and anti-smoking program is conducted with Grades 4 and 5 students in all schools in Victoria and Haliburton Counties. The Association also participated in displays in Lindsay area malls and schools, where people could have their carbon monoxide level checked with a CO indicator.

Ensemble a hit in Coboconk

The Coboconk Legion hall was the setting for an entertaining multicultural show put on by the Shevchenko Musical Ensemble on Saturday, June 9. An Ontario bicentennial event, the show contained a varied program. The group was made up of a chorus, orchestra and youth dance troupe, and performed music, song and dance ranging from Ukrainian ballads to French Canadian folk songs, in front of a capacity crowd.

The format of their performances varied; when the colourfully dressed dancers came on, most attention was focussed on them. The orchestra, conducted by Ensemble director Andrew Markow, played several traditional and classical pieces on its own, stressing accordion and mandolins.

The chorus' all-male voices lent power and depth to their songs, including an interesting version of Bob Dylan's classic "Blowin' in the Wind". Soloists had many chances to demonstrate individual talent. Especially well-received among these was the opera singer Eva Beames and her selections from Puccini and other Babysitter training courses have continued to be popular throughout the year and will continue in future.

The Victoria Haliburton Lung Association welcomed some new members at the meeting. An invitation was extended to anyone with an interest in the group's work to contact the office at 324-6497 for information about joining.

Enrichment program is a successful venture

By SHARON CHATFIELD

During the 1984-85 school year at J. Douglas Hodgson Elementary School there has been a pilot enrichment programme. As well as taking part in regular classes, approximately 25 grades 4, 5 and 6 students had the opportunity of participating in three different types of enrichment activities. Speakers, films, and short field trips were an integral part of one type of enrichment designed to stimulate new interests and promote thinking about topics and issues not covered by the regular curriculum. In addition, in groups of about eight students, the youngsters learned interviewing techniques, creative problem solving methods and practised logic and other thinking skills. A highlight of this part of the programme was the designing of multiple clues for a mystery to be solved co-operatively by another group. Some students also chose to pursue a third type of enrichment and investigated a "real problem". This commitment fostered a radio programme on Acid Rain, a puppet presentation on deer hunting, volunteering at Extensicare, a mini pizza business, and the authoring of two short stories.

All the students and their enrichment teacher, Sharon Chatfield said last week that they would like to express their appreciation to the following people in the community who enthusiastically shared their talents, knowledge and experience to help make the first year of the programme a success. New initiatives have been stimulated in these many topics which were presented. Janet Fraser - Acid Rain; Murray Fearrey - Local Government;

Ron D. Lawrence - Being a Naturalist Author; Caryl Douglas - Acting; Douglas Hodgson - History of Education in Haliburton; John Stouffer - Astronomy; Bruce Turner - Photography; Ron Pittaway - Birding; Dr. Laurie Wood - Being a Veterinarian; Len Pizze -

Producing a Newspaper; Fraser Rogers - Being a Lawyer; Sheila Elston - Aging; Gregory Jones - Banking; Marilyn Burton - A trip to China; Anne Creelman - Radio Broadcasting; Lee Clarke - Computers; Eric Mitchell - Deer Hunting.

Foster parenting challenging but rewarding

Haliburton is in need of more foster homes

By ELIZABETH CHURCH
Staff Reporter

WHILE being a parent requires a great deal of patience and understanding, being a foster parent requires an even greater amount of both. But with approximately 12,000 children in Ontario requiring foster homes each year, the need for foster parents is high.

"It isn't easy to parent a child who is confused and has possibly been abused," explains Marg Davies, a supervisor for the foster parent program in the Victoria-Haliburton region. At present, there are 40 foster homes in Victoria-Haliburton, but Davies says there is "a real need" for additional homes in the Haliburton area. As a result, the Children's Aid Society, which administers the foster care program, has placed a banner over the Dysart municipal offices in an attempt to gain the attention of potential foster parents.

Despite this local campaign, Davies stresses that the Children's Aid Society does not wish to "give a sales pitch" for foster parenting. Instead, Davies hopes the publicity will result in a few more foster homes for Haliburton.

Davies says that many people who contact her at the regional office in Lindsay are not aware of the preparation and time required to become a foster parent. "Most people who call me expect to get a child the next day," she says. To become a foster parent, however, an applicant must go through a special screening and training process. Local Children's Aid Society workers conduct interviews in the home of prospective foster parents, and parents must also travel to Lindsay to attend courses in foster care. In all, Davies estimates it takes approximately six months for an individual to qualify to become a foster parent.

Foster parenting requires a great deal of dedication, as Jackie and Allen Scott, who live in Wilberforce, can attest. They've cared for foster children since 1958. "There's nothing more gratifying than knowing that you've done a good job and given a child a better chance," Jackie says. Of the 14 children she has cared for over the years, she has kept in contact with all but one, and receives letters from as far away as New Zealand from children she has helped. Although foster children usually return to their natural parents within six months, the Scotts also adopted a young girl whom they looked after in their first years as foster parents.

'You can't take children without loving them'

There's nothing more gratifying than knowing you've done a good job'

In addition to the care which the Scotts give, Jackie is also quick to mention the support which she receives both from the local Children's Aid worker and from the residents of Wilberforce. "People work with me and supply me with toys and clothing," she notes. "The local ACW knits sweaters and looks for things for the children at rummage sales. I wouldn't have been able to get along without their help," she adds.

While some couples might look forward to the time when their children are grown, Jackie says she plans to continue taking in foster children even now that her five children have left home. "I couldn't stand the quietness," she says. "I love children. You really can't take children without loving them," she explains.

During their years as foster parents, the Scotts have taken in children ranging in age from two months to 11 years and have even looked after a set of identical twin boys. "I had to dress them in different clothes so I could tell them apart," she remembers. Though Jackie and her husband had planned to take older foster children from now on, at present they have a 16 month old boy in their home. "When I heard his story I decided I had to take him in," she says.

Jackie explains that in most cases children are put into foster homes as an emergency measure. As a result, foster parents are usually asked to take in children on very short notice. In this respect, Jackie says the people of Wilberforce have been a great help, lending cribs and highchairs for foster children who arrive at her home within the short space of a few days.

Although Jackie notes that most foster children have special needs, she adds that she had tried over the years to treat her foster children in the same manner as she treated her own children. "I tried to make them a part of the family and to deal with all the children in the same way," she says. While their own children were growing up, the Scotts would sit down with the whole family and discuss taking in a new foster child before any final decision was made.

Although taking a child into your home and providing him with the care he requires can be quite satisfying, it is also a gratifying experience to see that child return to his natural parents. In Ontario, an average of 65 percent of foster children are able to return to their own parents. For Jackie, this means that by being a foster parent she can help not only a child, but also parents through a difficult time. Jackie explains that it is good to see a child return home and adds that in her experience as a foster parent, she has found that most parents also appreciate the help and attention which she has given to their child.

"There's nothing nicer than to have someone call up to say thanks," she says.

Baha'is concerned about torture in Iran

The Baha'is of the Haliburton area have received recent news of increasing persecution of their fellow Baha'is in Iran.

Lon Duncombe said the community's horror at learning the details of the crimes being committed against the defenceless members of the Baha'i Faith in Iran was lessened only by its gratitude for the courageous leadership Canada is providing in international actions currently being undertaken to alleviate their suffering.

In addition to executions by firing squads and hanging, for the past five years

Islamic authorities have tortured Baha'is routinely in order to try to force them to recant their religion and become Muslims or to provide the names of other Baha'is. Methods, reported by eyewitnesses now living in Canada, are are barbaric. Iran's authorities are said to be resorting to manufacturing, by means of false confessions exacted under torture, the evidence needed to publicly justify inhuman persecution of the Iranian Baha'is, who are that country's largest religious minority.

Duncombe also pointed out that Baha'is are not safe in their homes which are entered at will, day and night, by revolutionary guards, who harass the inhabitants by insulting, threatening and beating them. They seize as hostages members of the household, even children, and ransack the entire house, confiscating or destroying whatever they wish. Following such incidents, family members are often turned out of the house and allowed to take nothing with them, even in the dead of winter.

Duncombe said the Baha'i Faith is the object of fanatical prejudice in Iran, instilled by the clergy who object to its teachings of the equality of men and women, universal education, and the right of the individual to independently investigate religious truth. "Canadian Baha'is," he said, "are extremely proud of the record of the Canadian Government which has responded since the beginning of the revolution by passing unanimous parliamentary resolutions, urging U.N. action, and by providing refuge in Canada for hundreds of Iranian Baha'is stranded without passports or funds outside of Iran."

At the end of May, Baha'is around the world were also gratified to learn that a U.N. committee endorsed a resolution requesting the appointment of a special representative to investigate the human rights situation in Iran, "in particular that of the Baha'is." Speaking on behalf of the Baha'i Community of Dysart et al, Jean Henderson said "it is the sincere hope of the Baha'is that the Iranian authorities will at last co-operate so that there can be a full and open inquiry."

The local Baha'is are hosting their second annual picnic at the Head Lake Park on Saturday, July 14. There will be a musical presentation at 2:00 p.m. and everyone is welcome. For more information call 457-1317.

egg-throwing contests. Also held were hoop-rolling races - races in which the children hit hula-hoops with sticks. For the unfortunate few who misbehaved a dunce cap was in order.

All in all it was a great day immensely enjoyed by students and teachers alike.

Victoria Board wants help

As its contribution to the Bicentennial Year, the Victoria County Board of Education has recently undertaken a study of the history of education in Victoria County.

A student team was hired under the Summer Canada Works Program to collect, catalogue, copy and file materials, as well as to do research and interview people, to fill gaps in information. Team members are Kerstin Mehnert, the project leader, Terri Garbutt and Paul Arril.

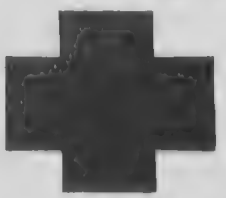

The historic research team has commenced the collection of material as a preliminary stage in the preparation of a book. The study will encompass all of the Public and Secondary schools in all of the townships and municipalities in Victoria County, dating from early settlement of the area to the present. The Board plans to engage a professional writer who will use the material in the publishing of a hard cover book for release sometime in 1985.

Board officials say any assistance in collecting information, records and photographs will be welcomed. Anyone interested in helping with this project or who has materials to loan to the Victoria County Board of Education historic research team, should contact the Education Centre, Verulam Road South, at Riverview Road, Lindsay, telephone number 705-324-6776.

Township of Snowdon
CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL REPORT
at December 31, 1983

To the Members of Council, Inhabitants, and Ratepayers of the Corporation of The Township of Snowdon:

We have examined the consolidated balance sheet of the Corporation of the Township of Snowdon as at December 31, 1983 and the consolidated statement of operations for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Corporation of the Township of Snowdon as at December 31, 1983 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles prescribed for Ontario Municipalities applied, after giving retroactive effect to the changes in accounting policy as explained in Note 6 to the financial statements, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 1983

1. Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Consolidation
(i) Consolidated Balance Sheet

This statement reflects the assets and liabilities of the revenue fund, reserve funds, the capital fund and includes the activities of all committee of Council.

(ii) Consolidated Statement of Operations

This statement reflects the consolidated sources of financing and expenditures of the revenue fund, reserves, reserve funds, and the capital fund of the municipality.

(b) Basis of Accounting

(i) Sources of financing and expenditures are reported on the accrual basis of accounting with the exception of principal and interest charges on long term liabilities which are charged against operations in the periods in which they are paid. The principal and interest charges are not accrued for the period(s) from the date(s) of the latest installment payment(s) to the end of the financial year.

(ii) The accrual basis of accounting recognizes revenues as they become available and measurable; expenditures are recognized as they are incurred and measurable as a result of receipt of goods or services and the creation of a legal obligation to pay.

(iii) Capital Outlay to Be Recovered in Future Years.

The historical cost and accumulated depreciation of fixed assets are not reported for municipal purposes. Instead the "Capital outlay to be recovered in future years", which represents the outstanding principal portion of unmatured long term liabilities for municipal expenditures or capital funds transferred to other organizations, is reported on the "Consolidated Balance Sheet".

2. Operations of School Boards and the County of Haliburton

The taxation, other revenues, expenditures and overlevies (underlevies) of the school boards and the County of Haliburton are comprised of the following:

	School Boards	Region (County)
Taxation and user charges	$143,647	$ 32,376
Grants	-	-
Other revenue	264	-
Requisitions	$143,902	32,372
Overlevies (underlevies) for the year	9	4
Overlevies (underlevies) at the beginning of the year	(35)	(29)
Overlevies (underlevies) at the end of the year	$ (26)	$ (25)

These revenues expenditures are not reflected in the "Consolidated Statement of Operations".

The overlevies (underlevies) at the end of the year are reported as other liabilities (other current assets) on the "Consolidated Balance Sheet".

3. Liability for Vested Sick Leave Benefits

Under the sick leave benefit plan, unused sick leave can accumulate and employees may become entitled to a cash payment when they leave the municipality's employment.

The liability for these accumulated days, to the extent that they have vested and could be taken in cash by an employee on terminating, amounted to $754 (1982 $Nil) at the end of the year. No provision has been made for this liability.

4. Municipal Equity (or Deficit) at the end of the year.

(a) The balance on the "Consolidated Statement of Operations" of municipal equity (or deficit) of $11,157 (1982 $8,036) at the end of the year is comprised of the following:

5. Reserves and Reserve Funds

The total balance of reserves and reserve funds of $130,956 (1982 $86,973) is made up of the following:

	1983	1982
for general reduction (increase) of taxation	$ 11,157	$ 8,036
for acquisition of fixed assets	$ -	$ -
roads	17,000	12,000
for working capital	48,300	48,300
contingency	2,000	2,000
	67,300	62,300
Set aside for specific purposes by legislation, regulation or agreement
	1983	1982
Set aside for specific purpose by Council for park purposes	-	-
for loans under the Ontario Home Renewal Plan	63,656	24,673
	63,656	24,673
Total	$130,956	$ 86,973

6. Changes in Accounting Policies

Effective January 1, 1983, Ontario municipalities and their local boards must follow the accounting principles outlined in the Municipal Financial Reporting Handbook. The new Handbook substantially revised many of the accounting and reporting requirements applicable to Ontario municipalities for the fiscal year 1983. The 1982 figures presented for comparative purposes have been restated, where determinable, to conform with the new presentation in 1983. The following summary outlines the more significant changes made.

(i) Previously assets were not segregated between restricted and unrestricted. For 1983 the assets of reserves funds are now reported as restricted assets.

(ii) The underlevies (or overlevies) for school boards and the region (or county), which had previously been recorded as fund balances at the end of the year on the Consolidated Balance Sheet, are now reported as liabilities.

As a result of the above changes, the effect on the Consolidated Statement of Operations has been an increase of $64 in the net change in municipal fund balances for 1983. The retroactive effect on the fund balances on the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at December 31, 1982 have been reflected in the 1982 comparative figures in this report and is summarized below.

	Originally Reported	Restated
To be used to offset (or to be recovered from) taxation or user charges	$ 7,972	$ 8,036
Reserves	62,300	62,300
Reserve funds	24,673	24,673
Net effect	$ 94,945	$ 95,009

This restatement arises from the following changes in principles:

Consolidation	$ -
Inventory and prepaid expenses	-
Capital operations not yet permanently financed	-
Accrued interest on net long-term liabilities	-
Underlevies (or overlevies) for school boards and region (or county)	64
Net effect	$ 64

THE HALIBURTON COUNTY ECHO AND MINDEN RECORDER

Gooderham News

By MARY HADLEY

For the last month the Gooderham school children, under the direction of their teachers, Chris Bailey and Jane Miller, have been working on their bicentennial project about Pioneer Life in Ontario. Last Tuesday they held Open House to which the parents and friends were invited. This started at noon with a family picnic after which all were welcomed into the school by the teachers, dressed very appropriately in their quaint costumes of yesteryear. The children, also costumed with aprons, bonnets or straw hats, entertained with several appealing choral numbers followed with square dancing which they executed well. Their enjoyment was quite apparent. It was amazing to see even the kindergarten children performing so well.

The pupils divided into several activity groups while the guests circulated and visited the various sections.

One group made ice cream each small one taking his turn with the handle while others held the freezer in place. We sampled the finished product and found it quite flavoured.

At another table we saw peanuts being ground into peanut butter. We were given a piece of homemade bread, previously made by the children, spread with peanut butter. Another treat was apple sauce.

Others were working on their quilt blocks - such little folk with remarkable concentration. Later this finished work will be quilted.

Photos of grandparents and others were on display. Among them were such names as Dovell, Madill, MacDuff, White, Lake, Hunter, Dixon, Agnew and many more pioneers of this area.

In the early thirties Gooderham had a well known ball team. Two of the players were Aldridge and Ronald Hunter. On display was the uniform worn by Ronald.

A baseball game of pupils versus parents ended an enjoyable afternoon. Rev. Sauve acted as umpire and certainly didn't favour the parents!

Again, hats off to our teachers who create such a happy atmosphere and make school days such an enjoyable, experience. Happy holidays.

The tennis courts near the Community Centre have already become quite popular.

On Thursday evenings, Doreen and Bill Kendall are explaining the basics of the game to learners who have registered to receive this help. Several are availing themselves of this opportunity and the assistance of this couple is very much appreciated.

It is rewarding to the Recreation Committee to see the number of players participating in this healthful and enjoyable sport.

If you require some help, register and meet Doreen and Bill at the courts on Thursday.

Awards to the 10 winners in the bicentennial quilt competition were presented at the Agricultural Museum in Milton last Sunday.

Evelyn and Fred Vanderland, Marjorie and Walter Madill, Dorothy Robertson and I accepted invitations to be present.

The Hon. Dennis Timbrell was guest speaker.

As each quilt was unveiled, we were interested to see the winner receive his award.

The quilts truly were beautiful. Many depicted pioneer life and the work of the early pioneers. Some showed the evolution from pioneer to the present time. Most showed the bicentennial logo, trillium and other Ontario emblems. Others showed the map of Ontario in applique. Workmanship was excellent. Fourth prize went to a man from Islington who did the work himself. It showed the white man and Indians with colourful head-dresses, birch-bark canoes, and trading posts.

We felt quite proud of ours even though it won no prize. I was glad I was not a judge for it would have been a difficult task. There were more than 160 quilts submitted.

Schneider's, one of the sponsors, supplied lunch to the many guests.

All quilts will be on display until August 31. There are about 80 acres with many buildings displaying farming implements of pioneer times at this site. A visit to it should prove a most interesting experience.

When you visit the Drop-In Centre you will notice 19 pieces of work that brighten up the appearance of the hallways. They include paintings, needlepoint, knitted items, string art, etc. Our local artist, Ken Bell, has four oil paintings on display there. Be sure to see them.

Jamie Bennett was the Grade 13 valedictorian for the HHSS commencement exercises last Saturday night.

Kinmount Korner

By MILLIE MOSS

Kelly Smith was the lucky winner of $18.50 in the Kinmount Legion 50/50 draw Saturday, June 16. Kelly is a great granddaughter of Bill and Dora Lilley and hails from Orangeville.

Wayne and Carol Smith of Georgetown were guests of the Lilleys at their Norland home over last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Barkwell of Verden, Manitoba have been visiting with Doris and Garland Barkwell in Kinmount of late.

A belated happy birthday to Carrie Mae Crego on Saturday, June 16. Carrie, who turned eight, had lots of family members celebrating her day at the South Lake Trailer Park.

Gae and Terry Brown with son Jeffrey, formerly of Minden and Kinmount, have now been transferred from Moosonee to Tillsonburg.

Austin and Ruby Henderson left June 3 and returned home Wednesday, June 20 from a trip to Nova Scotia. While there, they visited with son Garth, his wife Joanne and daughter Angela at Spryfield, N.S. On the Sunday they travelled together to Point Pleasant Park where they thoroughly enjoyed themselves along the harbour and looking over the ships, seeing also the Parade of the Tall Ships. What a sight that must have been! From there they travelled to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia where they boarded the ferry bound for Bar Harbour, Maine, thence driving up through the New England states and back home to Kinmount. Ruby tells me the weather was perfect, the people very friendly and the whole holiday was wonderful and a delight to remember.

Downtown Kinmount was certainly a busy spot last Thursday, Friday and Saturday when some of the I.G.A.

staff were on the street outside the store, cooking up hot dogs and hamburgers for prices from the old days in part celebration of the Bicentennial days coming up. Free Pepsi Cola was also handed out with the goodies. I'm told all the youngsters marched down from school to be in on the fun.

Wayne Rolfe is a busy young man these mornings, painting the recently purchased Kinvale Restaurant. Wayne and his brother in law who currently is doing inside work with the aid of their staff are the new proprietors of the establishment.

Best wishes to Jim Simpson and his wife in their marriage of a week ago. May you have a long and happy life together.

Results of the St. Patrick's C.W.L. card party June 5 are: ladies' high, Frieda Harrison; ladies' low, Margaret Kylie; men's high, Bill Menard; men's low, Ambrose Watson; lone hands, Bill Menard. There were six tables. The results for June 19 were ladies' high, Nora Crego; ladies' low, Bertha Stata; men's high, Ambrose Watson; men's low, Mike Cain; lone hands, Connie Williams. There were seven tables.

Congratulations to Diane and Wayne Fountain of Kinmount who became the happy parents of a 7 lb. 4 1/2 oz. daughter to be named Nicole, born Friday, June 22 at Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay. Waiting for her arrival home are first time grandparents Georgina and Bob Swinson, great grandma Nora Swinson and many other members of the family.

A number of our local young ladies travelled to Mariposa recently to participate in a three pitch tournament. There were many other schools involved and it was a great day for all.

Many happy years are wished to Susan Phillips and her new husband who are to be married later in the day, as I write this, on Saturday, June 23.

Happy, though belated, birthday to Mrs. McNiven of Kinmount on Thursday, June 21 who celebrated with a number of friends and relatives.

I've been asked for a recipe again so how about this one for children's parties? It's called Gumdrops Cookies - 1 cup all purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup of butter or margarine, 1/2 cup brown sugar (packed), 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 1/2 cups Robin Hood oats, 3/4 cups gumdrops, cut into small pieces, 1 1/2 cups shredded coconut. Preheat oven to 350°F (moderate). Measure flour, baking powder, soda and salt into large bowl. Stir thoroughly to blend. Add butter, sugars, egg, water and vanilla. Beat until the mixture is smooth. Add the oats, gumdrops and coconut. Shape into balls. Place on ungreased baking sheets. Bake at 350°F for 12 to 15 minutes. Yield: approximately five dozen.

To all you folks who are sick, get well soon. The rest of you, stay well and happy, read the Echo, call me at 488-2353, remember to join in the June 30/July 1 celebrations, we'll be having lots of them. Also remember the Home Support Services who reach out to help so many. They need lots of help in phoning a shut-in, running an errand, doing odd jobs for those who can't do it themselves, caring people who can take the time for an hour or two to go and sit with someone who would love a little company. Just keep in mind, you could be the one who would like to have someone call you some day. Then there's Meals on Wheels and Meals on Wheels. Extra help in that area is always appreciated.

The nice weather has at last arrived so don't forget to wear a cap for extended time in the sun. Be here next week and remember: high gasoline prices do have one benefit. The girl next door is getting more attention.

Monmouth council

At a regular meeting of Monmouth council on June 11 the following matters were considered:

The following bills and accounts were paid: General Voucher of $94,442.64; Welfare Payroll of $1,610.80; Roads Voucher of $7,107.78.

Council accepted the tender of Frink Canada for a salt and sander spreader dual dump body as per tender form and deleting the kilometer unit.

Council agreed to pay the final installment of the Dog Pound Levy.

By-law 84-5, a by-law to adopt the estimates for 1984.

was passed.

Council granted permission to the Monmouth recreation committee to use the Monmouth Arena and the Lloyd Watson Centre for a fund raising festival known as Country Good Times for July 13, 14 and 15. The Monmouth Agricultural Fair Board also got permission to use the Monmouth Curling Club.

Council donated $100 towards the Cat Scan campaign.

Alan Revill will attend the AMO conference as voting delegate and all necessary costs will be paid.

Trent Severn News

Rains on Sunday and Monday, June 17 and 18 helped the water supply situation. Instead of needing to draw water for replacement of evaporation and flow losses along the Trent, the Gull and Burnt River tributary flows were reduced a little as the Kawartha rose slightly.

On June 18 the reservoirs averaged 95.8%, about 4.5% higher for the date than the ten-year average. The decrease of 2.5% from last week's level had resulted from evaporation and some modest flow required last week to offset losses. During hot summer weeks the decline gets to be 3.5-4.0% per week depending upon the dryness.

Otonabee River flows were increased slightly early this week, i.e. June 18, 19, to help control a sharp rise on Stony Lake brought about by heavier than average rain in that area. By the end of the week part of this remained, but flow reduction to a minimum will be done as soon as the situation is stable.

Congratulations to Gerry Salmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lee, for completing his course as an electrician and passing his examinations at Sir Sandford Fleming College with first class honours. Gerry will still be employed by Sharp Electric Ltd. of Haliburton, but can be reached at 448-2346.

"Class '84 Bash a success." So says Walsh and she continues with enthusiasm - on Friday, June 22 the graduates of Haliburton high school dressed in their finest, poured into the Lloyd Watson Hall which was decorated party style for this occasion. The wonderful turkey dinner served by Roberta Walsh and Doris Waymouth was fantastic. Many thanks for their efforts. At 9:00 p.m. with the tables pulled back, the music of "Six Pack" began. The dance floor was crowded and the band sounded better than ever. The Wilberforce ladies ball team kept the refreshments under control and were pleased with the behaviour of the graduates. Many good report parts were heard, with a thank you to Wilberforce for hospitality and generosity.

Let's do it again and come back here. A vote of thanks to Maria Rosenberg whose organizing was terrific and to the decorators and others who looked after details. It will be a time well remembered by many, a special time in the lives of the graduates. Congratulations graduates.

The Grade 8 graduation that took place in Haliburton on June 22 brought together the greatest number of Grade 8 pupils in the history of the Haliburton elementary school. Some of those from this area were: Wynne Agnew, Marty Andrews, James Baumhour, Danny Billings, Tina Billings, Lorie Blackburn, Lynn Blackburn, Dwight Bowers, Mary-Ellen Cogan, Brett Irvine, Jennifer Klapow, Terry Noble, Angela Plumley, Michael Poppe, Jeleen Schroder, Steven Stoughton, Philip Thomson and David Townsend. Good luck to all these youngsters as they enter high school.

Citizens from this area enjoyed taking part in the official opening of the Drop-In Centre at the Haliburton Home Support building. This facility was made possible through a grant from the New Horizons, a Government service. Among the guest speakers was our M.P. Bill Scott, who presented to the Centre a picture of Queen Elizabeth and a Canadian flag.

Sponsored by the Wilberforce Legion Branch 624 were nine of our young people who attended the track and field meet, held by District F of the Royal Canadian Legion, in Belleville on June 23. The boys and girls had been outfitted in black and white T shirts bearing the name Wilberforce 624. This event was made possible by sports officer of the Legion, Walter Shaver. He can be proud of the showing made by his branch. Rhonda Walsh came first in the discus throw and in the midjet girls javelin throw. Steven Stoughton came first in the discus throw, Chris Lanegin was second and Marty Andrews third. In the javelin throw Chris Lanegin was first, Steven Stoughton second and Marty Andrews third.

The Monmouth Agricultural Society held a dance in the arena on June 23. There is a great deal of activity going on all over the county at this time and so they were lucky to have a fairly good attendance. The "Six Pack" group have become so popular here that they should move into Wilberforce to be on hand for all the occasions in which they are needed.

Registration for summer swimming classes was held on Tuesday. Anyone now wishing to join the classes should contact swimming instructor Joanne Coumbs or come to the Lake Wilbermere Beach on July 2 which is the day that classes begin. The swimming program is sponsored by Monmouth Recreation Committee and the fee is $5 for the month. There are nine classes for children. Adults will be accepted for classes in the evenings.

The U.C.W. second annual strawberry supper takes place on June 30 at the Lloyd Watson Centre. Served from 5 to 7 p.m. will be hot barbecued beef and pork, cold cuts, salads, etc. and of course strawberry shortcake. Adults $6 and children under 12 $3. Under 5 no charge.

A service was held in the South Wilberforce United Church on Sunday, June 24 for Marion Shortt. Marion Shortt lived with her family in Tory Hill many years ago.

Marion was a member of the Tory Hill United Church. Members of the family came to attend the memorial service which was taken by Maurice Bradley. The interment was in the South Wilberforce Cemetery.

Best wishes and good luck to Louise McDuff who is moving into an apartment in Peterborough. Louise was given a farewell party on Sunday when she met with friends at the Memorial Centre and received some lovely gifts to start up her new home. Louise has an artistic ability in painting and drawing and may in the future be able to obtain some satisfying instruction in this art.

Keep Saturday, June 30 for the big dance in the arena with a live band, "Laredo", sponsored by your Recreation Committee.

There will be a display of lumbering tools dating back to the pioneer days at the Minden County Town Museum which is located directly behind the Cultural Centre, beginning Saturday, June 30 at 2 p.m. It will continue through the month of July. The tools and artifacts are prepared by Ron Pittaway of the Ministry of Natural Resources. Everyone is invited to attend. The reeve of Minden, Lyle McKnight will be on hand to cut the ribbon for the grand opening. Please try to attend in pioneer costume if possible. There will be refreshments for everyone. Plan to attend as everyone is welcome, pioneer costume or not.

I hope the following had a happy birthday - Dwight Thomas June 19, Dave Pentney June 21, John Welch June 24 and Mervin Rivers June 26. I received the call one day too late to get this in last week's column. Sorry boys. I have to have the news no later than 10 a.m. the Monday before the paper comes out the following Wednesday.

Nothing can make it easier to resist temptation than a proper bringing up, a sound set of values and witnesses.

If you have any news for me to include in my column, please call 286-3607. Thank you.

A happy birthday to Ron Rivers July 8.

Hint for the week: Linoleum - to clean linoleum without washing remove all the dust, then take a piece of flannel sprinkled with paraffin and rub over the linoleum. This not only makes it appear like new but preserves the linoleum.

Don't forget opening night of Janet McGhee's art exhibit at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery June 28.

I had a letter from the Wisemans last week and they would like me to say hi to all their friends around Haliburton County and they miss us all. They arrived at the Sault safely except for a couple of flat tires on the way.

Would anyone happen to know where a person may get a chain put back in a small cuckoo clock?

The Minden County Market will be open every Saturday and Sunday starting June 30 from 8 a.m. It is located on Highway 35 at Water Street entrance. Bring your own table.

Ellen and Elgie McKay are having a get-together to celebrate their 50th anniversary at the McKay residence on June 30. Everyone is welcome to attend. Happy anniversary and I hope you have many more.

There will be a concert at the Minden arena Sunday, July 1 at 9 p.m. "Toronto" and "Perfect Affair" will be on hand to supply the music.

Last week card party winners at the library/cultural centre were: lone hands, Pearl Cowan. Others were Claire Brooks and Alice Todd.

Don't forget the Three Wheel Racing Saturday, June 30 at the Minden Natural Terrain track behind the arena. There will be cash prizes. Registration is at 11 a.m., practice at 12 noon and the races start at 1 p.m.

The Strawberry Supper and Bazaar is this Saturday at the Ingoldsby United Church.

There will be an Old Tyme Family picnic to celebrate Canada Day Sunday, July 1 from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. Lunch at 1 p.m. at 1850 prices. There will be hay rides, prizes for those who come in old-fashioned attire, cartoon characters for the kids, fun races and contests for everyone, including the egg toss championship, horseshoe tournament, kite flying demonstration and competition, free kites for the first 50 entrants and grandstand entertainment which includes a magician, musicians and dance exhibitions. Try not to miss it, it sounds like a fun day for everyone.

Here's another recipe you might like to try. Strawberry Chiffon Squares: ½ cup of butter or margarine, 1½ cups finely crushed vanilla wafers (about 45) 1 (3 ounce) package strawberry flavoured gelatin, ¾ cup boiling water, 1 (14 ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (not evaporated), 10 ounces of strawberries, sliced with the juice, 4 cups miniature marshmallows and 1 cup whipped cream.

In a small saucepan, melt butter, stir in crumbs. Pat firmly on bottom of an 11 x 7 inch baking dish. Chill. In a large bowl, dissolve gelatin in boiling water, stir in condensed milk and undrained strawberries. Fold in marshmallows and whipped cream. Pour into prepared pan. Chill for two hours or until set. If desired garnish with whipped cream and strawberries. Leftovers can be refrigerated.

Would you believe that lie detectors do not, and cannot, actually identify lies. All they can do is record certain physiological phenomena associated with lying - abnormal respiration, heartbeat, etc.

That's all for this week. I hope to see you all next week.

Norland Natter

By KELLY GRAHAM

I'll start off this week on a happy note; congratulations to Joanne Teskey, formerly of Norland, who was married to Grant Wallace on Saturday, June 23.

The tenth annual Norland Horse Draw will be held at Ward Park on Saturday, July 14. I'll have more details on that next week.

There will be a Norland Talent Contest at Ward Park on Saturday, August 4. It will start at two o'clock. Along with the talent show there will be a bake sale and a leather stall. This event will be sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary and the community.

My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Myrtle Valentine who died last June 18. Mrs. Valentine, of Norland, will be fondly remembered by the children and adults around town who remember her kindness.

On Friday, June 22 there was a Victoria County Public School softball tournament featuring 16 boys and girls teams including one of each from Cobocok and Norland P.S. I will try to get some results for next week's column.

On Wednesday, June 27 the graduating grade eights at Norland Public School sat down to a lovely graduation dinner at the Royal Motel in Rosedale.

The euchre scores for Thursday, June 21 were as follows: ladies' high, Dorothy Brown; ladies' low, Grace England, men's high, Stan Stewart, men's low, Tom Bowns, lone hands, Ada Cowan.

Camp Medeba on Grass Lake has a different look now. A new chalet motel of seven units, complete with kitchen and lounge areas (overall 2400 square feet) has been added to the existing camp facilities. Howard Hunt, president of Camp Medeba, designed it and Greg Brown's Construction built it. The chalet will not only enhance the existing camp accommodation, but will also be available year round for church groups at current rates. The official opening occurs on June 30 with official government representation.

Don't forget Canada Day, Sunday, July 1. A big day is planned at the West Guilford Recreation Centre. The horseshoe tournament starts at 10:00 a.m., so register early. The opening ceremonies will commence at 12:00 noon with John Eakins officiating. Following the opening ceremonies, the Green Lake run will start from the Centre and the Pine Lake swim from the head of the lake. Children and adult events will take place throughout the day, so check the schedule when you arrive. The day will follow last year's format with a few added attractions. We are hoping more children will enter the Amateur Contest this year. Also, we would like to see more entrants in the Canada Day Poem Contest. This year's theme is "Pioneers of Canada".

Each year the committee chooses two children from this area who have shown by their past performance an interest in their community. The two children this year are Jean Morrison and Craig Bain, who will be given the honour of raising their country's flag at the opening ceremonies. Our evening will close with a giant fireworks display at dark. So come along and help us sing "O Canada" and enjoy a fun packed day.

Mrs. Frances Braithwaite from Beverley, Yorkshire, England has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Betty Smales and has gone to visit another daughter at Cambridge, Ontario.

Charlie Abbott of Hazelmere, Surrey, England is enjoying a summer holiday with his niece, Frances Farrow and family.

Mrs. Betty Smales, Mrs. Gwen Rutter and Mrs. Helen Jones attended the M.S. dinner held at Mary Crest Nursing Home, Peterborough a week ago. Tickets were sold on an Electrolux Tri-Vac and Gwen was the lucky winner. Helen Jones has Multiple Sclerosis and through the help of nurse Betty Smales, has made this disease more known or has made people more aware of M.S. There is no known cause or cure and the victims slowly lose muscle and nerve control. When you see a carnation with a donation box beside it, then you are supporting M.S. and funds are used for further research into this disease.

The adult "Rock-a-Thon", where adults rocked the night away in the rocking chair at Faith Tabernacle Friday evening, was a success. Some 12 people began the evening with nine hearty souls holding out to the end at 7 a.m. Sunday morning. I'll bet there were some sore spots on certain areas for a day or so!

Winners in card games a week ago at Senior Citizens were as follows: Euchre - Hilda Woodcock, 80; Bruce Calhoun, 78; Inga Wassel, 73; Gord Madill, 76; most lone hands, Doug Taylor, 6; Hilda Woodcock, 6; consolation, H. Several Midland Regiment members attended the annual reunion in Bowmanville. It is noted that there are fewer members each year, and they leave the dance a little earlier. Colonel Thorn stated that he helped to organize the Midland Regiment which began on December 16, 1936, and was composed of the Durham and Northumberland Regiments. At the meeting, it was decided to hold next year's reunion in Port Hope.

Four delegates, namely Bruce McKay, Sylvia Sisson, Holly Sisson and Lloyd Whitaker have been sponsored by Branch 129 to attend the Dominion Convention in Winnipeg this week.

There will be a District seminar on August 28 at Fenelon Falls for poppy, membership, and public relations chair people. The Zone Drumhead service will be in Coboconk on July 29. The most important date is July 18 - our Legion Carnival.

Haliburton County Board of Education minutes

A regular meeting of the Haliburton County Board of Education was held in the Board office on Tuesday, June 19, 1984, commencing at 8:00 p.m.

Present were: Bonnie-Lee Berry, Chairman; Ross Anderson, Lynn Craigmyle, LeRoy Eager, Julie Hunter, Dorothy Kinsman, Linda Mumford, Cheryl Murdoch, Leonard Salvatori, Brian Sisson, Nancy Stinson, George Simmons, David Villard, Paul Wilson, J. Douglas Hodgson, Stuart Baker, and Stanley Baker.

Also present were: Mrs. George MacDuff and her daughter, Sheila. Absent was: Kelly Crick.

The Board went into a Committee-of-the-Whole to consider the following matters: discussion of the situation on the Mervin Barry bus and the resultant action by board personnel; interview candidates for the position of Vice-Principal of the Archie Stouffer Elementary School; discussion with Dale Robinson on the addition of Kenneth Blinkhorn to his staff; discussion of personnel in the Board office.

Back in regular session, the Board resolved that Joan Fennell be named Executive Secretary to the Director of Education, commencing July 1, 1984 - with remuneration retroactive to January 1, 1984 (with the exception of the overtime paid during that period.)

Minutes of the meetings of May 22 and May 31, 1984 were approved as printed.

The Capital Replacement Budget of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School will be increased by $4,537 to cover the additional cost of the installation of a new clock system for the school.

The Board approved the hiring of Kenneth Blinkhorn on a probationary contract for one year to replace Gerard Feltham at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

Probationary contracts will be offered to the following teachers to teach at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, commencing September 1, 1984: Judy Notley, Business subjects; Walter Tose, Mathematics/Science; Christine Brown, Special Education.

The Board appointed Gareth Kellett to the position of Vice-Principal of the Archie Stouffer Elementary School on a two year appointment, commencing September 1, 1984.

The Board approved the use of the following class novels for the J. Douglas Hodgson Elementary School: Who is Bugs Potter - Grade 7; Our Man Weston - Grade 7; The Cay - Grades 6 and 7.

Recommendations of the Testing Committee - as amended by the principals - were accepted.

Permission was granted for a Grade 6 Guidance Programme (Values, Influences and Peers) to be offered at the J. Douglas Hodgson Elementary School in the 1984-85 School Year, and the Archie Stouffer Elementary School.

The Board approved in principal the brief presented by the Archie Stouffer Home and School Association on school bus safety. The Transportation Committee will take this brief and the Board's present policy and arrive at a new policy regarding rules for drivers, bus operators and students. This new policy will be in effect by the beginning of the school term in September.

The Haliburton County Board of Education will look into concerns of parents with regard to the Mervin Barry bus run from Glamorgan Township to Haliburton.

Expenditures for the month of May, 1984, in the amount of $833,329.88 were approved.

The Board adjourned the June meeting at 10:40 p.m.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the members of the Board held a special social time because it was the last meeting that J. Douglas Hodgson would be attending as Director/Secretary. At this time Leonard Salvatori presented Hodgson with a name plate which will be placed at the bottom of the plaque bearing the names of the Chairmen of the Board. A snack of fresh vegetables and dip had been prepared and Nancy Stinson made a large cake bearing a replica of a bunch of bananas and the notation

"from the bunch of us". A pleasant time was had by all. Doug Hodgson thanked the Board members for their part in the retirement activities on June 16. He said he felt the members who had taken part had certainly represented the system well. The chairman, Bonnie-Lee Berry and trustee, Dorothy Kinsman spoke eloquently. Hodgson also commended Stuart Baker on the masterful way in which he chaired the programme.

Water Management Improvement Study

Under the Canada/Ontario Flood Damage Reduction Program, a comprehensive "Water Management Study of the Muskoka River System" was initiated in 1983 by the Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment Canada with the involvement of the consulting firm MacLaren Plansearch Inc.

The main purpose of the study is to identify the requirements of the competing user groups considering current operating restrictions and to develop a general water management strategy that will achieve community acceptance. The intent is to provide a general planning framework for future action to be taken and to identify operating and structural improvements that could be implemented on a priority basis.

Investigations of the study have now been completed and preliminary recommendations are available for public review. As part of the public participation program, the following three meetings will be held to outline the study findings and to obtain comments from residents within the watershed.

MEETING 1
Date: June 30, 1984
Place: Port Carling Arena
Time: 10-12 noon

MEETING 2
Date: July 04, 1984
Place: Dorset Community Centre
Time: 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

MEETING 3
Date: July 07, 1984
Place: Canadian Legion
36 West Street South

Time: 10-12 noon

The Study Team requests your attendance at the Public Meetings which have been organized to obtain maximum input to the study from the general public. Your involvement in this important water management study of the Muskoka River System will ensure that final recommendations take all watershed interests into account.

Sherborne et al council minutes

as Planning Administrator and Assistant Clerk-Administrator, Municipality of Dysart et al, gave a presentation to members of council outlining what his company could offer this municipality. Planco Consultants is located within the County of Haliburton. Members of council said they would review this matter and be in touch with Stamp.

Council was in receipt of a letter of reply from MTC in reference to Roadside Park, Hwy 35 at Dorset. D.A.O. White, District Engineer in correspondence dated May 14, informed council that the Ministry was prepared to transfer this picnic site to the municipality for $1. There would, as previously discussed, be a covenant concerning use of the park and toilet facilities by highway traffic. As MTC has entered into a maintenance contract for the summer of 1984, the effective date of transfer, supported by a resolution of council, would have to be after Labour Day, 1984. White stated also that arrangements could be made, however, should the municipality wish to commence development work for a beach, this summer.

On Thursday, May 31, council members available, along with the clerk, planned to attend at Queen's Park with John Eakins, M.P.P. Victoria-Haliburton to speak with Deputy Minister, John Sloan for Ministry of Natural Resources. This meeting has been requested by council to investigate the possibility of Crown Lands being released for future development. A written brief will be submitted.

The Municipal Sludge Disposal Site was discussed and the clerk was instructed to arrange to have the area surveyed by Norm Lyndon,

O.L.S. in the future to enable the municipality to attain ownership by Legal patent.

Council amended Resolution 126/84 passed on the 14th day of May, 1984 to read as follows: that whereas the firm of Tobias and Bagshaw having successfully argued and received a reduction by the Taxing Officer of the Supreme Court of Ontario in regard to the Bill of Costs awarded to KBL Bridge Association; and whereas this municipality has been informed that the net amount due is $4,331.80; now therefore council directs the clerk to make payable to KBL Bridge Association a cheque in the amount of $4,331.80;

and that along with such payment the firm of Tobias and Bagshaw is hereby requested to provide to Blake, Cassels and Graydon (Barristers and Solicitors) for KBL Bridge Association a bill which this municipality has paid in the past for the preparation of the agreement; that in accordance with paragraph 6 of the agreement between KBL Bridge Association and the Township, KBL Bridge Association agreed to pay a sum not to exceed $1000 for legal costs in the preparation of the agreement.

Council approved the reduction of taxes in the amount of $114.71 for proerty located in Concession 13, part Lot 24 and woned by Lawrence F.W. Pearson as a result of Gross and Manifest Error under Section 496(1)(f) of the Municipal Act, Chapter 302.

Council approved the reduction of taxes in the amount of $130.11 for property located in Concession 12, Part Lot 30 and owned by John, James and Samuel Bellis. These taxes were reduced as a result of Gross and Manifest Error under Section 496(1)(f) of the Municipal Act, Chapter 302.

Council approved the reduction of taxes in the amount of $82.75 for property located in Concession 11, Part Lot 9, under Plan No. 385, Lot 22 and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Brennan.

Council approved the payment of $3.98 which is an overpayment in 1984 taxes as a result of the above reduction; cheque payable to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Brennan.

By-law 895 setting out the salary to be paid to Deputy Clerk-Treasurer, Mrs. Irene Clawson was amended as follows: that a salary for the year 1984 of $15,644.00 was made payable to recognize one of her basic duties that of Treasurer. This salary increase is retroactive to January 1, 1984.

Council was asked to give comment on the proposed Bicentennial Weekend being held to raise funds for the Fire Department and Dorset Community Centre Building Fund. Council had no objection to the Dorset Fire Department and the Dorset Community Centre Building Fund committee holding a Bicentennial weekend on July 27 and July 28, 1984. It is understood that this event will be held on the grounds known as Lot 30, Concession A, in the Township of Sherborne, County of Haliburton and Lot 30, Concession A, in the former Township of Ridout now in the Township of Lake of Bays.

Drop-in Centre

your guests and visitors are very welcome.

Finally, there is hope for the beginners of bridge, cribbage, and euchre. A few, "professional" players have volunteered to give instructions in the card games.

Thanks to Peggy Podmore and Mary Walling, our "Art-in-the-Hall" convenors, who have done a magnificent job in artistically beautifying our drop-in centre and hallway. A special thank you goes to the artists who have allowed us to display their work.

Writers' Corner

The frog choirs sing in our ponds at night,
The birds warble sweet in the trees by day,
And I think - if you tried with all your might,
You never, from this, would coax me away.

The forest is cool, shady, fresh and green,
Where ferns and moss so richly grow,
And I think - it's the loveliest place I've seen,
I hope when you see it, you, too, will think so.

The day that you come, we'll go for a walk
Where our wild friends live, and softly we'll speak,
And I think - if we're lucky, and don't even talk -
We just might see wee folk play hide and seek.

The sun shines bright and out pop the flowers
Where hummingbirds hum and bees buzz by,
And I think - as I watch, and relax, for hours,
There never was one quite so lucky as I.
